Lot's of deck....not many hands!

Dear Newtown and Chilwell members.

This weekend, at Queens Park, we are hosting two huge games, East Belmont and North Geelong playing each other in semi-finals in the Firsts and the Thirds.

To do that successfully – to the standards that have set for ourselves – we need every person who is available to get down and lend a hand.

One of the up sides, if there can be any, of not having many sides in the finals is that there are lots of people who are now free to give us a hand.

Leaving it to the few is not the Newtown way.

And while you're putting that two blue shoulder of yours to the wheel, think about what you can do for the club next season.

We will have people coming off the committee in the next little while and we need replacements.

John F. Kennedy said it as well as anyone.

Think not what N&CCC can do for you, but what you can do for N&CCC.

This club, as the great Greg Wells called it, is your club, and it only exists if everyone pitches in.

Vale Cam Muller an Outstanding Individual

The Newtown & Chilwell Cricket Club is saddened by the passing of Cam Muller.

"Cam was a former curator at our club," said President Phillip Morgan.

"He was a stand-out individual, a man from whom many of us learned a lot about cricket, about life, a person whose company you were the better for being in."

"He was also the father of two of our club's stand-out cricketers, Jason & Luke."

"Both are premiership players, making the contribution of the Muller family to the N&CCC a very special one indeed."

"Our thoughts are with Wendy, Jason and Luke now, and the other Muller family members."

The Thirds challenge lives on

A mighty century, some splendid catching and a couple of stout-hearted bowling performances were the highlights of the Third XI's win over Geelong City at Burdoo Road last weekend.

Mark Ainsworth, the treasurer, produced the century to be treasured for years to come, under that special mention in Barnso's Bible – century-maker in a final.

Ainsie and Dev came together with the game in the balance and began smashing the ball to all parts of Grovedale.

Dev got into the eighties, stumps the only thing denying him his own century.

On day two, Stoker was, well Stoker, three early wickets, then back to get the next breakthrough, though a fair bit of the credit for that must go Grant Whiteside who was having a day out behind the stumps.

The leg-side catch to get City's gun was a pearler.

Stoker had his own pearlier at deep fine leg, a mis-timed hook of "Captain" Kirk the trajectory of which had to be re-assessed a few times before it landed exzachary (to line a punchline from a very old joke) in the fielder's mitts.

Dev by now had been roaring away, literally in the case of exhorting a few of his teammates when their, into the wind, reprising – in the memory of those old enough to know – his workhorse efforts in the 1999/2000 grand final.

Then came a moment to savour, the batsman bowled by a ball he was trying to leave alone, the stumps spread-eagles, or spread-hawked.

In an afternoon full of game-changing moments, here was another.

Nine wickets down a still around a hundred shy, City declined to go down without a fight. Moments of danger had really arrived, but they were getting close when a wise old head out on the boundary predicted: The final wicket will be a run-out, Campbell Bishop the fielder.

Not long after cheery Newtown supporters were shaking the hand of Nostradamus Turnley.

He is available to predict Lotto number this Saturday night, if anyone is interested.

This weekend the Thirds travel to Winter Oval to play St Josephs on that funny around the corner oval.

Over the years, it has been a place of mixed success for Newtown teams.

Russell Mitchell has in his team a bunch of blokes with the talent and more importantly, the character to produce a happy outcome.

Spread yourself out of the weekend, time at QP helping out, and time at EB, supporting the team.

Well done the under 13's

Heartiest of congratulations to the Under 13's for their splendid display over the season, and making the grand final.

Disappointingly, they couldn't win another one, but two grannies in as many years is a wonderful performance.

The club thanks Jason Thiele and all the other parents who for six months forwent their Saturday morning sleep in to help run the show and provide the boys with the opportunities to show all their skills.

Finals grounds 2014/15

Obviously the Committee hopes for all hands on deck to continue the N&CCC finals presentation tradition.
