Tough week for cricket

THE MAGYARIAN MARVEL AND A BIT OF “SON” LIGHT BRIGHTEN A TOUGH WEEK FOR CRICKET.

Cricketers around the world have reflected deeply on the life of one of their brothers and their own commitment to the game the past little while.

Phillip Joel Hughes took the path so many of us have dreamed of ... from the plastic wickets of Thistle Park in Macksville to the fields of glory in the nation he so proudly represented, and to Africa, Asia and Europe.

With every re-telling of the story of the boy who played outside in the backyard until the last spark of the sun have slipped below the Great Diving Range, then went inside to practice his shots in front of the mirror, we were reminded of the dedication that ultimate success demands – all without any guarantees.

There were other reminders, too. N&CCC went into the last fortnight minus almost two cricket teams of unavailables.

That in most games there was a fierce sense of competition says volumes about the commitment and dedication of the availables.

Battler led his battlers to what many times appeared an unlikely win over Lara in the Third XI.

This ageless warrior, this man who is so true Two-Blue he continues to play when he could be forgiven for giving it all away, led a recovery from 8-46 to 9-140, supporting by Michael Kirkland's invaluable 30.

The App roared into life late on day one when another ageless warrior, as well as a compellingly adroit administrator these days, the Magyar ian Marvel, Frankie Tuskes, came on to bowl his dibly-dobblers.

He had four wickets by stumps, and got the Magyar Michelle, as in five-for, late on day two, very late - late enough to have nerves jangling as Lara reached eight shy of victory.

In the ones, there were three fine half centuries from Daniel Lawrence, Yves Roussety and George Chisholm in what was a huge run-chase.

George is fully maturing as a fine First XI play, having taken four wickets in Lara's first innings of 300.

In the Second XI, a young man by the name of Rod Kiddle set out on the climb to the top of Everest without so much as an oxygen bottle – Lara's 326.

He rocketed to 75, and had good support from Tommy Bates and Michael Beveridge, getting the side way beyond base camp, but not quite the peak.

Young Rod had also proved pretty handy with the ball the week before.

Word is he has a great future.

In the Fourth XI another “forever young” shone, Stevie Lewis. His 84 included a partnership with Jordie but a total of 207 proved insufficient as the Lara bats ran amok.

There was another father/son moment to savour in the Fifth XI, Jack Royce batting with his old man, then taking a catch of Dev's bowling.

And at the end of a time of reflection about our game, and the people that play it, we had another indelible reason for why we play it.

Private Cricket Coaching (One on One/Small Groups) with Dan Lawrence

Dan Lawrence is Newtown & Chilwell’s visiting UK player this season and a member of the Essex Cricket Academy. In just 5 innings with us Dan has already posted 2 centuries in 1st grade GCA cricket. (111 v East Belmont & 191 v South Barwon) demonstrating a magnificently crafted batting technique.

Dan will be attending NCCC Junior practice sessions but he is also available to provide one on one coaching or small group sessions.

Dan has a level one coaching certificate and wide ranging coaching experience already in English cricket. Parents & Cricketers, if you think your offspring might benefit from some specialists coaching from Dan, give him a call. If your youngsters catch on as well as Dan hits boundaries, they will be flying.

For further information or to arrange a coaching session please contact Dan on 0475 510 227 or contact Don Royce on 0437 668 369.

Under 11s report

Newtown Chilwell Barnes 118 def by South Barwon Green 135 Noah Guida 18, Harry Hayden 16
Lewis Cleary 2/21, Jacob Curyer 1/11

Tonight's match against Alexander Thompson began with black arm bands & a minutes silence for the late Phillip Hughes. A nice touch from cricket Geelong I thought.

Tonight's captain Neddy Dyker lost the toss & we were sent into bat. An even batting performance across the board with only 5 wickets falling. Top scorers this week were Ned Dyker & Riley Callow with eleven each, while Ella West chipped in with 9.

In the field we were good again, a few run outs, some quality catching and a couple of 3 way collisions just to keep things interesting, one in which Isaac Hedley almost ended up with a date with the tooth fairy!

Best of the bowlers this week were Alex 'Squizzy' Taylor & Will Tait with 3 wickets each, while Ellie Kenneally snagged another 2 including a wicket maiden.

Victory was ours this week, with all the kids playing the game in great spirit. Well done guys.

Thank you to the Taylor family for the bbq, fruit & lollie pops.

Next week is the first of back to back grudge matches against two of the other Newtown Chilwell teams with bragging rights on the line at Queens Park.

Catch you next week, go the Two Blues!
