Grand final returns the best venue in 'Town

We have officially been advised by the GCA of the FINALS Ground allocation 2011 / 12.

The great news is that we have been scheduled to host the following finals @ Queens Park:

Week (1) March 10 & 11 - Stinton Oval (1sts - qualifying finals)

Week (2) March 17 & 18 - Stinton Oval (1sts - semi finals)

Week (3) March 24 & 25 - Stinton Oval (1sts - GRAND FINAL)

Week (1) March 10 & 11 - Shaw Oval (4ths - qualifying finals)

Week (2) March 17 - Shaw Oval (6ths - semi final - one dayer)

Week (3) March 24 - Shaw Oval (5ths grand final - one dayer)

The above is certainly an acknowledgement for the work of many people and certainly the superb wicket table that GT has currently got in place and been able to regularly produce for all forms of cricket throughout the cricket season.

This has flowed through the Geelong over 60's and the desire of all "away" teams wanting to come to Geelong to play at Stinton Oval to the England versus Geelong over 60's test match in November to the hosting of the Australian cricket Championships in January, 2012.

All the feedback has been positive and supportive so a further well done for all the volunteers that have been involved in the above events.

Also be sure that the work and organisation of all others in relation to all of the above matches have contributed to Queens Park being granted the opportunity to host the above games.

That said, the hard work just begins and to fully prepare ourselves for the above days, we must commence preparation of arrangements to ensure that we are ready as a club & facility to put on an "opening night performance" for all days noted above.

We will be requiring support from all members & supporters for the above days to please come forward now and let either Neville Crane or Philip Morgan know when or where you can assist over the above days...all hands on deck will ensure that the NCCC can put on the best grand final ever.....!!!

Eminence gris!

It wasn't that long ago that staying out of Division Two was the paramount goal for Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club.

We enter the final round of the club championship sides' home and away season in 2011-12 with loftier goals.

Finals – and that includes the First XI, despite the noble enough loss to Geelong West last weekend.

It all speaks volumes for the hard work done on and off the field over the past few summers.

But as the Addy put it in its report on the First XI match, there's still plenty to be done:

“The result showed how far the Blues have progressed over the season, but that they are still short of the competition's top sides and will most likely just miss out on the finals.”

Progress, improvement, comes in all sorts of ways and at all sorts of times.

An outstanding example of always trying to improve yourself is a bloke by the name of Terry Hickey, even as he and his horn-rims approach the joys of Over 60s cricket.

Not that long ago, Terry addressed the issue of his batting, even as he was bowling better than ever before, including a seven-for.

He wanted to do better.

He sought advice, applied himself in the nets and yeah and behold, he scored his maiden half-century for the club.

At 59, Ian Simpson, the redoubtable Simmo, is still working on his technique, asking his batting partners if his feet are going in the right direction.

He featured in a 73-run partnership last weekend, took a 3-for and got 30-odd the week before to garner a healthy bit of the printer's ink at the Addy.

We are indeed fortunate to have quite a few eminence gris around the club, older blokes who passion for the game is an exemplar.

Russell (Mitchell), Dev (Royce) and Scott (Mullen) in the magoos who set up that great win last weekend. Though when you think about it is more skin than grey hair with those three!

Then there are blokes like Frankie (Tuskes) and Grant (Whiteside) who each year take on the jobs of captaining and nurturing in the thirds and fourths.

What a great win the fourths had securing a rare outright.

To be a great club again, we need class in the First XI and it is developing.

But you need classy people all the way down the grades – in the club championships side, and beyond.

And when you look at Simmo and Hick, see their enthusiasm untouched by the years, we've got 'em there, too.

Practice Wicket Update

The new Practice Wicket Complex is finally nearing completion.

Currently David Murray is working on making the shed a working shed by adding shelving etc.

It was rumoured that a TV and bar were also to be included - we will check out that one later this week!

Over two weeks ago the weather at last became favourable for Tony Devlin to organise putting down the artificial grass on most of the remaining cement areas of the hard wickets. Within a day or two the 'Phantom' helper Ian Simpson had marked the wicket area for the bowler's run ups and so this means that we are at last all but completed.

We now have a magnificent Practice Complex and Turf Maintenance Equipment Shed. It will ably service all club members both senior and junior for many years to come.

Thanks again to all members and their families that assisted at working bees, and in particular Scott Mullen, Graeme Taylor, David Murray, Tony Devlin, and Ian Simpson for their special contribution.

It is anticipated that each net will be 'named' as part of this ceremony - it has not been decided how at this stage.

The Complex will be officially opened just prior to or early next season. A plaque will be installed at the nets to recognise those responsible for their creation. It will also recognise those that have answered the call to donate funds to help cover the budgeted shortfall.

The cost of the artificial grass was not included in the original budget and it cost just under $ 6,000, and it is our aim to cover this by members of the 'Newtown Cricket Family' donating towards it. It has been decided that every donation over $ 100 will be recognised on this plaque.

We will keep the "Practice Wicket Campaign" open as long as we can prior to the Official Opening. As donations are received we will give updates on the progress until that time unless people prefer to do so anonymously.

Donations received to date include:

Ian Simpson	$ 1,000
Neville & Dianne Crane	$ 1,000
Brett Bentley	$ 500
Greg Hansen	$ 300

TOTAL	$ 2,800
