We're Back

Well we were actually back on Saturday ... some of us. The First and Second XI games were washed out.

The Thirds had a good win over Grovedale, and playing on the carpet at Geelong College, the Fourth XI went close, but suffered for not enough runs, then a few missed chances.

Though Tim Sanderson's catch at first slip, well maybe somewhere between first and second slip – and by the final re-telling, somewhere between gully and point - was a beauty.

Zachary was steaming in, the edge was struck with considerable force and it might easily have been four. But Tim pulled off the perfect interception.

Dev Royce produced his usual marvelous contribution in the Thirds: three wickets from nine curmudgeonly over, well supported by the other bowlers.

Another from the veteran class, Mark Ainsworth, produced the match-winning innings, both he and Michael Beveridge earning a beverage with their 78 run partnership.

This week it is Geelong West, an opponent always worthy of respect and demanding the fullest of commitment.

In fact, the complete second half of the season requires all sorts of commitment, on and off the field.

Training needs to be as intense as ever. Getting behind Rocket, Carso and Twadds should be paramount in everyone's minds.

One of the most important things is to BE AVAILABLE.

You can't be a conditional cricketer and expect to take a weekend off here, and a weekend off there, and be welcomed back every time with open arms.

Yes, life is more hectic in 2015 than it was 50 years ago.

But cricket season runs from October to March as it has since time immemorial.

It is not hard in the modern era to create calendars on laptops, iPhones, or whatever instrument you choose well in advance to block out other intrusions on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. If you're not of the nerdy persuasion, get a five year old kid to help you do it.

Now, on February 7th, there's another function in honour of a bloke we should always be getting behind, a tribute night for Don Royce.

He hates it when you call him the great man, so we step back from that. He is however, one of the great servants of our club, and the game of cricket generally.

He has OAM after his name as formal recognition of that.

February the 7th will be a mixture of both the formal and the informal, because that's the Newtown way.

We will tell him we love him by telling as many stories against him as we can.

The best clubs work tirelessly for the future, but never forget their past.

Don represents a glorious past, but still pours his heart and soul into the present and the future.

He knows cricket, he knows cricketers. He takes a bit longer than the rest of us to get to the end of his stories, but it always worth the wait.

So, when you get that five-year-old to fix up the calendar on your iPhone, ask him to also block out the Saturday night on February the 7th.

And get him or her to do the same thing for all the other social functions on between now and March.

Blokes bust their guts not just six months a year, but 12 months a year, many days of the week, to make this club run.

Not everyone has the time and other wherewithal to do that.

That is completely understandable.

What is not so easy to forgive is the thinking that the club is there just for your convenience.

No it must always be a two way street. Get on it....!!!

Congratulations to Twads and Florian

Who'd ever have thought it – Brendan Twaddle an old romantic at heart.

But that's him to a T, well afternoon tea, perhaps.

Over the break Brendan Twaddle took our much loved afternoon tea superstar, Florian Cooper, off to Paris, and in the City of Lights he popped the question.

No, not "Howzaaaaaaat!" but "will you marry me".

The answer was apparently a resounding yes.

Congratulations to Brendan and Florian.

We look forward to another generation of Twaddses proudly wearing the navy blue cap.

GAVVIE CLARK – 60 not out

It's not his most significant innings – that's celebrated on the wall of the rooms, the picture with Pickles – but it's not a bad one.

Gavvie Clark pushed another single to reach 60 not out recently.

Chisa ensured the event was celebrated with all the necessary reverence, as the picture shows.

Gavin Clark is a life member of both our club and Geelong Amateur.

He is also a sponsor of both clubs.

He is a man who has helped give a lot of young people in our city the chance to play decent sport on decent facilities.

On behalf of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club, happy 60th birthday Gavin.

Now, just as you did with Pickles all those years ago, put you're bloody head down and get a hundred!

It's not the innings of his life – that's record with the photo of Pickles on the walls of the rooms – but it's not a bad one.

Gavan Clark, club stalwart, has just ticked over another single to reach 60.

Tony Devlin – a treasured club man, by team mates and treasurers alike

It doesn't seem that long ago, on a drought ravaged ground at out Grovedale, we celebrated Tony Devlin's 300th game.

Now, in more gentle climes, we're on the cusp of shaking his hand and welcoming him to his 400th game.

It's an amazing record when you consider a lot of those games, particularly early in his career, were two days.

That's an awful amount of your life to give over to game and club.

But that's never been a burden for Tony.

He will tell you that being around the club from his earliest days, and learning about life from some of its finer citizens, helped shaped his life.

And he has helped shaped the club, particularly its finances, for so long with his irresistible participation in the reverse raffle.

Who can say no to Specs when he hands out those blue and white cards every year?

Tony Devlin is a right-hand batsman and bowler of some ability.

Barnso's Bible reveals that he has scored 500 or more runs in the Sixths, Fifths, Fourths and Thirds.

As a younger man, he played 11 games on grass, taking wickets and scoring runs.

But it is as a hard wicket warrior that he is most fondly remembered.

Playing on the hard stuff, he has won four premierships, hitting the winning runs in the most recent one against Grovedale, a trademark cover drive.

In 2004 Specs' contribution to the club was deemed worthy of life membership.

It was an honour both well-earned and highly regarded by the recipient.

You get the feeling that Specs never expects a lot in return for his efforts on behalf of Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club.

There is a deep sense of duty about the way he carries himself whether tossing the coin, or tossing you your ticket in the raffle each year.

But as he reaches yet another landmark in his 34th summer with the club, as well as saying well done, congratulations and all those other words, the odd thank you wouldn't go astray.

A few team-mates, especially premiership ones, have had good cause to say it over the years, and just as many treasurers.

Anthony DEVLIN
