Thirds in to grand final

The Newtown and Chilwell Third XI has qualified for the GCA Division One Grand Final.

The Thirds, well marshalled by the skipper on the field, and a group of Two Blue urgers on the fence at deep fine leg, beat North Geelong by three wickets in a bit of nail-biter at Shaw Oval.

Mark Ainsworth showed the same care with the bat as he does with the clubs finances, turning a tidy little profit in partnership with Zac Stokes and other sundry assistance.

This does not refer to the batting of Tom Levick and good Greenie with the bat, or the fine bowling of Sando and Zac on day one.

Rather it highlights Xavier Travs contribution to the winning score, second highest after Tom's powerful performance. Discipline is so important at this time of year, particularly this weekend, when the Thirds play the minor premier, East Belmont, in the grand final.

Sadly the other three N&CCC sides bowed out over the weekend.

The Second XI just didn't score enough runs against Murgy, despite the skipper's fine knock and lower order contributions from Nick Fairchild and Tom Beaumont.

The Fifth XI will think a long time about the one that got away, also against Murgy. Windtie's side has dominated the season, but as we all know, finals is a whole new season of it own.

Credit though to Murgy, who have done well in their first season in Division One.

The Sixth XI lost to Bell Park.

Grand final week produces a whole set of challenges for N&CCC.

The Thirds well know what theirs is.

The rest of the club should automatically know what it is, too.

Get along to support the Thirds, blue hoodies to the fore at Grovedale.

Or, get along and support the Pres and his hard-working team as we host the GCA First Division grand final - Joeys against South Barwon.

The bar has been raised each time we have done it. Let's lift it a few more centimetres.

Grand final this weekend:

Thirds versus East Belmont at Grovedale Secondary College.

Congratulations to Troy Logan, GCA 5ths batting average winner

Well done Pom (s)

Congratulations to two former N&CCC players who helped Hampton win the South Eastern Cricket Association first grade grand final last weekend.

Jon Carpenter scored heaps of runs and took three wickets to help Hampton to victory, while Joe Dawborn, who made that one cameo appearance in Frankie's Thirds last season, got a tidy 19 and a couple of wickets.
