Captain's Awards

First XI – Yves Roussety

The 1st XI Captain's Award goes to Yves. Continues to work diligently on his game and is always first at training and understands the continuous efforts required to be part of a successful team and club. Never complains when batting line ups are changed and exhibits a real Newtown two blue character both on and off the field. Is always there putting the covers on and assists the junior program as well.

Second XI – Patrick Eastman

This year's 2nd XI captain's award goes to Patrick Eastman. Without doubt this year's award was as tough as it gets to choose as we had three outstanding contributors all year in Pat, Riley Ferguson and Alex Hickey whom all made my job as captain a real pleasure to perform. They are outstanding young cricketers on the field and even better young men of it. In a fantastic year for the second XI Pat's ability to do any job I asked of him at any time was a major reason behind our success this year.

Pat had superb year with the bat making over 300 runs and scoring his first turf hundred. He volunteered to bat at #3 when many others turned it down. His rise up the batting border and his ability to score off the new ball quickly was something this team needed after many years of poor batting. He also took the gloves on many occasions during the year with great success and his rapid improvement behind the stumps is a vital asset for himself and the club going forward. He took many brilliant catches and dismissed Gary Kelson from Grovedale with a "blinder" such was his skill behind the wickets.

Pat is also a fine bowler but he sacrificed this part of his game to keep and this type of approach typifies the person Pat is "Team always comes first with Pat". He is a great team player who gives his all in the field who never stops trying. He is a very worthy captain's award recipient.

Third XI – Ben Eason

My 3rd XI Captain's Award for Season 2010/11 goes to Ben Eason.

Ben has come along in leaps and bounds this season with his bowling, fielding and batting. He has become a regular member of the thirds team and I am hoping with confidence Ben can become an established all rounder for our club.

His positive attitude and hunger to succeed and develop his game has been why this season Ben has won the Captains Award. I think once Ben realises his own ability with the bat and makes his first big senior score there will be no stopping him.

Ben in the past has had injury concerns but this season in working with Bryan he has successfully worked out a way to regulate and keep on top of any injury concerns.

This is a big tick to not only Ben but also Bryan in working with our young bowlers and developing a horses for courses programme to make sure our players are playing and not sitting on the sidelines. Well done Ben and I look forward to watching your career develop.

- Frank Tuskes

Fourth XI – Adam O'Connor

I am awarding the 4th XI captains award to Adam O'Connor. As my unofficial vice captain Adam's support was invaluable both on and off the field. Adam not only assisted me with pre and post match activities but also offered many 'sensible' suggestions during the game.

Fifth XI – Steve Lewis

It is with great pleasure that I have awarded the 2010/11 Captain's award to Steve Lewis.

This recognition for Steve is a true reflection of the ongoing support, leadership and all-round qualities that he has demonstrated throughout the year.

He has supported both captain & his teammates in all situations during the year especially in a year when we have had several younger and maturing players moving through our ranks and his cricket nous and calm nature are a positive influence in these nurturing and developing years for Newtown & Chilwell.

Personally he has been a tremendous personal support to me and this award is a public recognition for the way he carries himself on & off the field.

Well done on your efforts for this year and look forward to many more years of playing cricket with such a true gentleman....!!!

Sixth XI – Adam Patching

Adam Patching has won the 6th eleven Captain's Award for season 2010-11.

Patch had a great season which has been acknowledged by winning the batting average in the league.

One of reasons behind him getting the award was he was usually one of the first to the games helped set up, pack up and provided great support whilst out on the field took the gloves when asked and always remained positive when things were not going our way.

Though the main reason he was chosen for this award is the way he has gone about making some important changes to his life which has entailed becoming a father, losing best part of 30 kilo's and looking to restart his footy career and hopefully pushing back up the grades next season. This is a major change to anyone's life and I hope that Patchy continues to show the maturity and strength of character which has helped him win this award.

Nice one Patcho.

Seventh XI – Mark Kirkland

Mark started off the season as the father of three junior players who volunteered to play in the initial 7th eleven. It took until the third round of the season (after 2 washouts) for Mark to join his three sons in playing their first official game together.

As the season progressed Mark and his three boys effectively become the swinging players in our side i.e. they filled whatever gap was left over after other available players from above were first considered.

Some weeks there would be 1 or 2 or 3 or 4 Kirkland's playing, and Mark had quickly worked his way to the top of our 'Dad's Army' list and played in 9 games.

Mark only batted on 5 occasions, but hit the winning runs in two games - the significant game being against Highton in the second last round - the win made our place in the finals a distinct possibility. Mark bowled in three games and got 1 wicket. He did not get a catch but got a run out against Newcomb in round 3. For a man in his early fifties he is particularly agile in the field. I cannot remember one miss-field throughout the season.

Mark willingly filled in the other gaps such as scoring and umpiring without being asked. His help on the night of the Centenary Dinner with sons David and Michael was much appreciated.

N&CCC Social Awards 2010/11

The Social Awards were back again for another year, with the winners announced last Saturday Night. Some previous awards were retired, some awards returned and we had a new Platypus winner crowned.

Traditionally, if players featured as nominations in the social awards, then those players usually do well in catching the Platypus' eye and pull very well in the vote count.

G.J. Donovan "Duck Award"

We had 5 players making the emergency number "000", but gladly no one made it to the Audi symbol or even the dreaded Olympic Rings.

Nominations:

- Rowan Mackey (3 ducks from 7 hits, including 3 in a row)
- Nathan Clark (3 ducks from 5 hits, including 3 in a row and a 0 not out)
- Andrew Green (3 ducks from 7 hits, including 3 in a row)
- Tom Roberts (3 ducks from 7 hits)
- Sam Eason (3 ducks from 11 hits)

Winner: Lucas Friend (late nomination) for facing 5 overs, then getting run out backing up at the non-strikers end.

Bruce Scriven Iron Gloves

Nominations:

- The 1st XI - dropping all the good batsman - Bambury (Lara - 3 times) and O'Brien (Leopold)
- Knackers (surprisingly never won this award). Also he claims that he is the greatest white fielder ever after that run out early in the season
- The 4th XI - dropping 8 catches vs Manifold Heights
- The 5th XI - dropping St.Joey's 15 times over 2 games

Winner: Adam O'Connor

Worst Bowler To Take A Wicket

Nominations:

- Specs - on a hat-trick, with the hat trick ball bowled a no-ball off the pitch.
- GT - 4/10 bowling mediums in the 7ths, next week 0/17 off 3 overs in the 6ths. Tony Marinelli - 3/13 off 4 overs in the 7ths (Not bad for a keeper)
- The Pom - 2 wickets off 30 overs in 11 different games (before the final round was a nomination, but then he took 2/30 against Lara)
- Darryn Lyons - bowling his leggies

Winner: Anthony Devlin

Worst Bat To Make A Score

Nominations:

- Jai Sheahan - 160no, 15 (T20), 3 and 7
- Budget - 2, 4, 6 and 53 (ineligible)
- Tom Roberts - 2, 0, 8, 0, 0, 48, 6

Winner: Tom Roberts (with the lowest ever score as the winner)

Special Mention: Bennett Merriman - making 109 not out in his last hit vs Lara.

Golf Champion

Winner: Stewie Leigh for stitching up Morgo (twice) and Greeny (once) (Back-to-back winner)

Pool Champion

Winner: Thommo - for renting out his pool and spa all season to anyone with an injury (or was it for other reason's Thommo?)

Stephen Lunn "Flotsam and Jetsam" Award

Nominations:

- Wins in turf grades
- 1st XI win (Last win Rd 10 - 25/1/09 vs Newcomb)
- Don Royce OAM
- The entire 150 past players who turned up at Centenary Dinner
- Mick Wood

Winner: Mick Wood

The Golden Ed (Karaoke)

Nominations:

- Russell Mitchell
- Tom Roberts
- Sargie (going for 3 in a row)

Winner: Sargie

The Platypus

Final Contenders:

- The Pom
- Tom Roberts
- "Staples" Anderson
- Dimma
- Knackers
- Loatsy
- Tom Bates

Winner: Scott Dimovski
