Captain's Awards

First XI – Dale Denny

The captain's award for season 2011/12 has been awarded to Dale Denny.

It was an easy choice to have Dale win this award because throughout this season he has shown all the qualities it takes to be a long term successful Newtown & Chilwell turf player.

What I like most about his cricket is the passion and confidence to put his hand up to lead by example with the ball, he has dismissed just about every high quality batter from the opposition.

He has a strong confidence in his own ability and puts a fair amount of pressure on himself to perform, wanting to be the one to take charge of a situation and most of the time he has made the breakthrough for the team. He is the type of player you want to have the ball in his hand when the pressure is on. It gives me confidence as a captain that I have a player like that on the side.

For a cricketer to have these qualities at an early point of his career is a real treasure for the Newtown & Chilwell Cricket Club to have. It is and will be very exciting to watch him continually develop into a respected player and leader.

With passion, strong intent, cricket smarts and the capacity to learn quickly Dale represents the future for this cricket club and will impact all the team and club members to follow his lead to another great era.

Second XI – James Bottomley

My captain's award goes to Jim Bottomley.

Jim has been outstanding for both me & the second XI during the year, whether it is with the bat or behind the stumps.

He is a quality batsman and his innings against Geelong West when both sides were playing for a final's spot on difficult batting wicket at Queens Park was just all class and grit and typical of the way he batted all year in the seconds.

His glove work in my opinion is the equal of any at the club. He lifts all those that play around him coupled with his athletic flair with the gloves. His commitment and work rate at training in the nets has improved his batting to a degree where I think Jim can aspire to be a regular first eleven player next year and for many years ahead.

It is always a pleasure playing with Jim and we all look forward to seeing his progress through next year. He is an outstanding young man and great clubman and all at NCCC hope that he is part of next year's first eleven premiership that we all crave for.

Third XI – Zac Stokes

I really am proud this year to award Zac Stokes the 3rd "XI" captain's award for the 2011 / 2012 season.

This cricket season for Zac will be remembered as the year he truly became a senior member of Newtown & Chilwell Cricket Club.

Zac has made a lot of progress this season in not only his bowling but he has also made a debut 50 and shaped games in NCCC's favor on numerous times. He cemented his spot as a regular 3rds cricketer with plenty of upside for turf cricket in the future. His will to win and hunger for success has been on display this season more than ever. He also debuted for the 1st XI in the T20 side versus Highton with a wicket.

Most importantly however I have noticed how much the NCCC means to Zac and the camaraderie he has developed amongst his peers. Zac is now a regular contributor during team discussion and always willing to have a chat long after the game at club headquarters with his team mates and his good mate Tom Bates (who also taken giant steps this season)

The club is in good hands for the future, well done Stokesy!

Fourth XI – Scott Sanderson

This year's fourth eleven captain's award has been awarded to Scott Sanderson.

His return to the club this year from Little River possibly flew under the recruiting radar. However, he has now established himself as once of the leading strike bowlers at the club.

His development with all aspects of his cricket during the season has been a major reason for the successful season that the 4ths have put together. Primary of this is his bowling and with a total return of 27 wickets for the season. He has also worked hard on training on both his bag of tricks and honing his batting skills.

Most importantly he has established a strong rapport with all players within the club. His willingness to listen to coaches and then apply their expertise is now being translated to his bowling and as the season has developed, he has now become a threat to all opposition batsmen.

With his continued development and attitude, Scott can be seen as a long term and much higher grade player for the NCCC. Look forward to the progression to turf in the short term form here.

Congratulations to Scott on an outstanding season...!!!

Fifth XI – Brendan Twaddle

It is with great pleasure that I award my captain's award goes to Brendan Twaddle.

During the end of last year, the seeds were sown that his father (ie. Philip) would return to play cricket for the lower grades after being away for over 19 years. With that, it also opened the door to bring Brendan back as part of the "package deal". An outcome, that our lower grades have continued to build in having several "father / son" combinations come through the system.

Throughout the year, he has been displayed so many qualities that are desirable to the genetics of where the NCCC need to be heading. He was a massive support with both his ability & cricketing nous and given that we play one day games was always looking for a way to best serve the side on any given day.

This resulted in several bowling spells into the breeze and in most cases when the best player of a team was getting away from us – in most cases he got them out...!!! He has also now become a batsman to be reckoned with and several performances throughout the year were often when the game was there to be won.

He has always been willing to offer advice to several of our younger players that have been in the fifths and this along with competitive nature provide the qualities of what will be the future strengths of our club going forwards.

Brendan will hopefully be in a position next year to undertake the trek up the grades and is certainly a player that will be in the mix for the top-end of the club as we enter the next season & beyond.

Congratulations BJ on what has been an outstanding contribution towards both the NCCC and the fifths & I sincerely thank you for (1) coming back & (2) just illustrating that anything was achievable by you with bat, ball or in the field.

GO THE TWO BLUES....!!1

Sixth XI – Anthony 'Specs' Devlin

The winner of the 2011 / 2012 6th eleven captain's award is Anthony "specs" Devlin

"Specs" has shown again what a great example he sets to all cricketers at every level by doing the following each & every week:

- Always brings afternoon tea
- Gets to the game on time
- Always has the correct NCCC uniform
- Helps set up & then pack up all cricket gear.
- Attends to both scoring & umpiring without being asked
- Conducts himself in a manner that more cricketers should when on the field

- Always walks when he is caught behind. He doesn't wait for his teammate to give him out. He did this again this year during the game against Anakie and showed the opposition how the game should be played at these levels (Unlike an Anakie player in the same game who refused to walk when they batted first who disgraced himself and his team mate who was umpiring )
- Always encourages our players (This during a year when the 6ths have an abundance of u/15's playing and just provides them with a great role model of that it takes to play for NCCC

Specs had a sub-standard year with the bat by his consistent standards but he showed up, week in & week out and set the example of what is expected at this club. He is a highly respected life member for many good reasons and has played over 360 games of cricket for this club and I was very grateful for his support this year in the 6ths.

Well done "Specca"...!!!

Seventh XI – Angelo Fatone

Being my first year as captain experience wasn't a strong point.

Angelo has given invaluable experience and support to the side during this year and helped me immensely to grow into the role.

His knowledge and understanding has been crucial to the 7th eleven throughout the season both on and off the field.

Help on the field has brought the best out of the team and his organisational skills and logistics on game day have been tremendous to ensure the team is always prepared.

Also at times during the year, in my absence Angelo captained & led the side to several key victories which also re-affirms his great commitment to the side.

Without Angelo's input and assistance throughout the season, the 7th eleven would not have been possible. And also with his presence, he has been a great role model to the many younger players that have had the benefit of playing senior cricket and includes the opportunity to play with his son, Ryan.

Thanks for your outstanding efforts Angelo...!!
