Captain's Awards

First XI – Dale Denny

This year's First XI captain's award goes to Dale Denny.

For those that have played cricket with Chippa, he has been known to have the occasional moment when things do not go his way.

To his credit this year, Chippa has completely changed his attitude and with the added responsibility of batting @ 3 & 4 he has become an ever improving cricketer.

After consistently getting starts with the bat in the last couple of years, it was evident that he has the talent to score runs, which he has transposed to 363 runs @ an average of 27.92.

With the ball, I think he was our most consistent bowler for the year and each week did the unselfish role of tying down batsmen from one end with his medium pacers. He still managed 10 wickets with an economy rate of 2.96 per over. In many cases, it was the pressure that brought many wickets for the team and created scorebook pressure that may not get the statistical credit he deserves.

Chippa has also been part of the successful under 21 Barwon Rockets team this year.

He will be a very crucial part of the NCCC 1st XI side for many years to come.

Congratulations mate on your year ...!!

- Riley Ferguson

Second XI – Tom Beaumont

This year's Fourth XI captain's award goes to Tom Beaumont.

Throughout the season the 2nd XI had many fantastic contributors and many outstanding individual performances. However this season and for a couple of seasons now Tom has been a standout performer in the 2nds.

Tom is a very popular member of the team and always gives 100% effort and takes great pride in his own performance and the performance of others around him.

In my opinion he has become not just one of the premier bowlers at our club but one of the most consistent and reliable bowlers in 2nds cricket.

Whenever an important spell of bowling was needed or there was a key batsman to get out I would turn to Tom, and I can say with great pride that he always delivered what was needed for the team. His 4 wickets in the semi-final vs St Joeys highlighted he is a man for the big occasions.

This season he also took giant leaps with his batting, being involved in a few crucial partnerships, and highlighted by making a gutsy 30 in the prelim in a partnership with myself that kept us in the game after being in dire straits. It was also very pleasing to see him make his maiden half century for the club with a blazing 55 against Highton.

In time I believe Tom could be a genuine all-rounder contributing significantly with both bat and ball. Tom's attitude, willingness to improve, competitive nature and team spirit are all of the highest order and thus is a very deserving winner of the captain's award.

Congratulations!

- Yves Roussety

Third XI – Zac Stokes

ZAC STOKES aka (TANK) aka (PANZER4)

This award could have gone to many a number of people but I decided to back the tank. Zac had an outstanding season, 30 wickets @ 18.50 and scored a 163 @ 14.82. Statically a good season but doesn't tell the full story.

Stokesy had many highlights this season, telling me where to go at Highton after his 18th straight over bowling the spell of the year. He had the opening batsmen all at sea but then watched Tuskes in his first over of the season knocking him over from the other end. When the ball was hit in the air to Kalz, there are teammates who could swear under oath that the Tank called out "Oh no, not Tuskes". Hard but fair man is the Tank!

To the St Joseph's game where Zac showed his batting prowess. Hitting a huge six at Carey oval onto Aberdeen st, unfortunately being run out on a disagreement with his good mate Batesy which resulted in a stare down, a turned back, a flying helmet and a few pleasantries. There is a god, as next ball Batesy's stumps were smashed only to have his partner in crime waiting for him at the rotunda with steam coming from his ears. The remaining 9 lads were waiting for WW3 to erupt but the Tank calmly let his anger subside and Batesy thanked his lucky stars. Tank made a blazing 40 that day confirm he had become a good all-rounder.

All joking aside I can't speak highly enough of Zac Stokes. He is a cricketer that you would go to war with. He plays hard and backs his team mates (even after run outs sometimes). After this solid season with the ball it's onwards and upwards for the tank and a run on turf well overdue.

Well done Zac.

Fourth XI – Sam Jefferies

This year's Fourth XI captain's award goes to Sam Jefferies.

This could have gone to any of a number of players both senior and junior, for their efforts, assistance and advice over the year.

Sam has continued to grow in the role of strike bowler throughout the year. He combined both juniors & seniors cricket and also was given opportunities to trial for various rep teams.

I believe that Sam got quicker the further the season went and I look forward to following his career as he establishes himself as a fearsome senior bowler, who can bat.

It was also good to see Sam's understanding and knowledge of the game increase with the experiences of the year.

Well done & thanks Sam, keep working at your craft.

- Terry Hickey

Fifth XI – Brett Loats

It is with great pleasure that I award my captain's award goes to Brett Loats.

Brett, having played many years at higher levels and was able to display the club & team spirit that has assisted the FIFTHS with continuing to win games.

He always gave 100% throughout any game and regardless of where the match was situated, would always be a positive influence to all.

Whenever any of the daily tasks were required to be done, Brett was always there to help with both setting up & then packing up. This just sets such a wonderful example to all of the players in this team. Even more so what our club needs to have more of.

Given the several young players in this team, he has also been willing to help to both educate and include them in learning all aspects of the game. There is no doubt that this has helped with all players being better for spending the day with him.

On the field he was always willing to bowl at any time, which included high velocity winds on many grounds, often getting wickets when it mattered to the team. Off the field and he is always willing to make a joke even at his own expense and also positive attitude towards getting the boys back to the rooms.

He has also continued to improve his batting and he will make many runs from NCC in the years to come. Only man I know to get off the mark with 2 x 5's....!!

Congratulations Loatsy on what has been a significant contribution towards both the NCCC and the fifths & we sincerely thank you your unwavering support & assistance to the side.

- Adrian Windt & Phillip Morgan
Co-Captains

Sixth XI – Adam O'Connor

It is with great pleasure that we have awarded our captain's award goes to Adam "Knackers" O'Connor.

This year's award was a most difficult decision as we have about nine players who think they are captain but in the end Adam was a standout choice.

His enthusiasm and commitment to the team was second to none. Whether it be opening the batting (which improved over the year) his fielding (self-proclaimed best in the league) his encouragement towards his team mates, he always put the team first.

This was highlighted a couple of times during the year when he offered to miss weeks so others could have a game. Adam's commitment to the team was further shown when he recently got married, he booked his honeymoon, leaving after cricket on Saturday and returning the following Friday night before the first final.

It has been a pleasure to have "Knackers" as part of our 15 man leadership group and it is with great pride we award him with this Award.

Well done Adam....!!
