Captain's Awards

First XI – Anthony Wilson

Anthony 'Helmet' Wilson

He wears his helmet like a toupee. His head protector sits unusually high and when asked why he said "its my junior helmet". I would then conclude that he would still be wearing his junior box!

Willow / Helmet is a practical man with a workman like attitude when it comes to his bowling. In a difficult year he has shown with his performances that the game is a very simple one and being able to provide consistency he made the captains job a much more enjoyable one in a difficult year. Not being overwhelmed or even aware of who he was bowling at, he went about his job and always provided challenges to the batters before dismissing them. Claiming almost all of the big scalps around GCA there is no doubt that Willow will be one of the most consistent and respected bowlers in the competition. There is nothing more enjoyable than seeing a Newtown junior cricketer come through the levels and continue to improve and impress with his on field performance and his off field attitude.

He is simply a quality Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club role model and our new cult hero to take us into a successful future.

Second XI – David Boyanton

This year's Second XI captain's award goes to David Boyanton. In a disastrous year for the second XI on the field David was a shining light for me as captain with both bat and ball.

At the start of the season I was convinced that Boyo would make a batting all rounder and I put it too him that to be a consistent turf eleven player he needed to prove to himself and others that he could bat. He proved his worth with the bat opening with myself on many occasions and scoring his first senior 50 against a quality bowling attack from Grovedale. He averaged over 30 and has definitely improved his own confidence in his batting so much so that he was rewarded with a first XI game at year's end as a batting allrounder.

With the ball he always bowled into the wind and late in the game taking vital wickets on many occasions and never once complained when asked to do so. He took 14 wickets for the year the second highest behind Jordan at a fantastic average of 14. He is a great team player who gives his all in the field who never stops trying. He was also the first there on home games helping with covers and anything I asked him to do. He is a very worthy captain's award recipient and I look forward to seeing the improvement continue next season.

Third XI – Jamie Pescott

This is not only for the past season but also the past few seasons. Jamie's support, knowledge and love of the game is unquestionable, it's always a pleasure walking out on the cricket field with him. We at NCCC are lucky to have a member of our club with such character and integrity. Well done "Champ".

Fourth XI – Zac Stokes

Until our last game there were a number of candidates in contention for this award but it was just after our narrow loss to East Belmont in the preliminary final that it was clear that Zac Stokes deserved this award.

In that game Zac came off the ground visibly upset and not so much because we had just lost a close one but because he saw that he had let the team down. This of course wasn't the case but it typified Zac's dedication and commitment to his team. As the backbone of the fourths bowling attack Zac bowled some lengthy spells and always gave 100% even under difficult conditions.

Congratulations Zac on displaying the true NCCC spirit.

Fifth XI – James Hadfield

It is with great pleasure that I have awarded the 2009 / 2009 Captain's award to James Hadfield.

This is a significant achievement for James as the year completed has seen him become the leading strike bowler in the GCA fifths competition. This has culminated in him winning the bowling average for the section which was received at the recent GCA Presentation night for taking 25 wickets at an average of 10.6.

That said, there are also several other qualities and attributes that James has demonstrated throughout the year.

These include a tireless approach to all aspects of playing cricket whether it be with bat or ball in hand, or simply chasing the ball to all parts of the field.

He has supported both captain & his teammates in all situations during the year and when games were on the line, it was his determination to produce his best and bowl a pivotal spell with or against the breeze that allowed our team to experience the success it had during the home & away games. He has also demonstrated the desire to not throw away his wicket which is always a valued quality in cricket sides.

He has also developed to the stage that he can and will play higher grade cricket at Newtown & Chilwell and selectors / captains should be taking notice that this is the type of player with his attitude and competitiveness that will make our club a better place to be going forwards.

Following in the footsteps and values of his father, James Hadfield is a worthy winner of the Captain's award for this year.

Sixth XI – Nick Harrison

This year's winner of the 6th eleven Captain's award goes to a player who has continued to impress and improve in every match. In his first season at the club he has been outstanding in his training attendance and selfless team attitude. He became an integral part of this seasons' bowling attack, and has huge potential to play higher grades after completing his debut year. He is also an ideal club, and captain's player, as he is willing to listen, learn and do what is needed to be done for the benefit of the team. Whilst he is shy and quiet natured, his cricket talent is as yet untapped, Congratulations to Nick Harrison, deserving winner of the 6th eleven Captain's trophy.

Vic Profitt Memorial Trophy – Gary Simpson

The club has been blessed with some of the best coaches seen in recent times.

Worthy of nomination are Andrew Green for his enthusiastic, unique style of coaching as he develops a cult following among his players. Tony Jefferies is a past winner and outstanding asset at our club. Ian Hastie, Andrew Duff, Steve Skinner and Rohan Gow, all possess great qualities and have served the club loyally for many seasons to date.

However this year's award for services to juniors is the culmination of almost a decade of support and coaching through every level of the junior program.

This season, Gary Simpson was a fantastic mentor and support to the under 17 group in his coaching role. With most players already integrated into our senior system, Gary concentrated on the finer points of the game in a more of a managerial position.

Gary's coaching is renowned for his diligence and efficiency which has always been a great combination in conjunction with his love for the sport, his emphasis on sportsmanship, work ethic, and player conduct is set to assure products from the Newtown & Chilwell juniors will be a legacy the club can be proud of.

Congratulations winner of the 2009-2010 Vic Profitt award for services to juniors Gary Simpson.

Ted Hood Memorial Trophy – Pat Eastman

This seasons Ted Hood award for the best performed junior was once again close contest between two outstanding juniors. Others notable for breakout seasons and outstanding performances were, Under 15 captain Lachlan Ansell, runner up in division one Under 15 batting average.

Toby Sudweeks and Daniel Smith achieved selection a senior Grand final. Fletcher Jefferies, Josh Barnes and Joe Rutherford made substantial contributions in both the senior and junior section.

This year's trophy however developed into a battle between past winner Jai Sheahan and captain of our Under 17 team Patrick Eastman. The pair have both already forged names for themselves in turf grades as Jai completes a stellar career with our juniors. Remarkably, Patrick still has a further season to play.

Batting wise, Jai scored 402 runs @ 57.4, while Patrick racked up 350 @ 43.8 in the juniors, Jai with 2 centuries and Patrick one. Jai won the prestigious GCA under 17 Just section batting award.

Bowling saw Patrick 19 wickets at 12.3 with Jai 8 @ 28.6 in the juniors. Patrick was runner up in the GCA bowling average, division one.

Combining junior, senior and T20 matches, where Jai played 5 first eleven & 3 second eleven matches. While Patrick played four first grade and 8 Second.

Jai scored 619 runs at 36.4, Patrick 502 runs @ 26.4. Overall bowling Jai 20 wickets @ 27.6 and Patrick 23 at 20.2

Brilliant seasons for both outstanding talents, may their senior cricket careers be long and fruitful.

After being agonisingly close last season the winner of the 2009-2010 Ted Hood Trophy is Under 17 Captain, Patrick Eastman.
