The wrap up of season 2005/06

Geelong Cricket Association

Under 15 Emond premiers 2005/06

Under 15 Trezise premiers 2005/06

Under 13 Royce premiers 2005/06

Under 13 Dawber premiers 2005/06

District Seconds premiers 2005/06

The memory of the barren season of 2004/05 has been wiped away with only could be described as "The Fairy Tale of Premierships" by the Second XI. With all sides being competitive in season 2005/06 the ground work has been laid for some hard work and success over the coming seasons. The First XI showed what it is capable of by beating the top three sides and all sides showed they were worthy finals contenders. A huge influx of new players (38 made their club debut in 506) has breathed new life, with a group of talented youngsters keen to push up the ranks over in the coming years. The challenge is there for the Club to hold onto the 113 players that took the field this year, snare some quality recruits and nurture our youngsters to set up a new Club dynasty.

SECONDS BLACK ANT

Bill Lawry would put the microphone to his lip and say: All you young cricketers out there watching should take notice of this and learn from it.

A few weeks ago, a bloke stood on our sacred ground at Queens Park and screamed out: "Season's over *s!"

On Sunday the same bloke stood, a crestfallen figure if ever there was one, among his dishevelled mates, well non-mates if you listen to the way Dog tells it. And to their everlasting credit, not one Newtown player, and not one Newtown supporter, did what they were perfectly entitled to do and scream back: "Season's over *!" As ever, the scoreboard remains the most eloquent thing in sport, along with the sight of the red, yellow and black ribbon holding that chunk of metal around your neck.

The numbers brought back, literally too, from Lara sounded like Bryan Brown doing Shakespeare – we few, we happy few, we band of brothers, so get that up yer!

Premierships are for life, especially one earned this way – an outright just to get into the semi-finals, then a first up game against the *, oops, minor premiers.

Over the course of the semi-finals, six long days of nerves, guts, sweat, groin rash, Nurofen-killed pain, avoiding Boof's throws at training, every bloke muscled in to do something for his team-mates. No wonder the captain had more than sweat running down his cheeks after Jimmy Bottomley had serenely stroked the winning runs and people began behaving like Dervishes all over Lara.

To really savour over the celebratory beers there was: Rhysie's half-century in the first semi; Budget's Michelle (Pfeiffer, 5-for, get it?) in the second; Scottie in every match; Battler's stratospheric six and Yves' brave knock in the final; James Bottomley's stunning catch and Hadder's leg-side stumping; Jodie thinking he's the new Keith Miller, Dog's 42 and his mind-games against Joey's; Ian Hastie being Ian all the time and the skipper – always insisting, always believing, in the words of the great Spofforth "this thing can be done".

A match report might seem surplus to requirements, but it should be noted that asked to bowl first in demanding conditions, Scott and Jodie performed magnificently. Barely had text messages bearing tales of wickets reached the receiver before another had to be sent. It could – should – have been 5-39 and game over. But instead the target was 167 as the minor premier did what you would expect a minor premier to do, guts it out. Of course one bloke in the middle order could – should – have done better, but no way was that going to be allowed to happen. Again, only silence as he trudged back to his no-mates for no-score, the scoreboard doing all the shouting. Innings over ****!

The run-chase was never that easy. Battler threatened mayhem but then got run out. Yves pushed solidly through the sledges like a bull-dozer through a pile of horse manure. Fleetie ran and dived and got the target under 100 before Rhys took eight, a precious, tension relieving two fours, off the last over before break. Eck, conceding nothing, put his front foot so far down the wicket it almost reached Werribee. Then the precious partnership, Bottomley and Parker, Jodie's cute cover drives for two, then the greyhound dashes for one, then Jimmy's nerveless stroke of glory.

Then, as they had ached to do all day, grown men dashed to the centre to form a human Stonehenge and sing an ancient refrain. Which, in the end, when you think about, was a longer, more passionate, more exhilarating version of "season's over *s, celebrating time has just begun – for us!

Captain's Awards

- First XI This year's Captain's award for the Firsts goes to a guy who was willing to put in more to improve his cricket by doing the extra sessions on off nights and at training. In scoring over 500 runs as an opening bat, and therefore winning the Club's First XI batting average, he became one of the quality players of the competition averaging 39.69. Congratulations John Rees.
- Second XI Second's award goes to a bloke who had to work really hard to turn his season around. He wasn't playing good cricket and after speaking to him he gave me a guarantee that his workload and commitment would double. My decision was made on a very wet Tuesday night when we had moved inside to have a drink, I looked outside the front door of the club rooms to see his father hitting him catches in the pouring rain. From that moment his season had turned, he started moving well, some of the catches that he took were amazing and his season peaked with a legside stumping off Ian Hastie in a victorious grand final.....
This year's Captain's award for the Seconds goes to Chris Hadfield.
- Third XI This is always a very difficult award to give and this season was no exception. Throughout season 2005/2006 I have, as captain, had great support from all players and can comfortably say that every single player that represented the Third XI stood proud for the club and also themselves.
As such it made this difficult decision all the more arduous. However it still must be awarded and one individual has performed outstandingly this year and it is on that criteria have awarded my captain's award to Adam Lavars.
Adam's season is truly outstanding, 710 runs at an average of 50.71, 3 centuries with a high score of 123. Although not thrown the ball often early in the season when time came for Adam to bowl again he performed excellently 18 wickets at 17.39. His fielding was also outstanding collecting 9 catches (and a stumping) and stopping immeasurable runs with athletic dives and aggression to the ball. His support to not only myself, his team mates and the team's objectives were also unquestionable.
I congratulate Adam on receiving my captain's award and hope that in season 2006/2007 he makes a commitment to the club, but also to himself to realize the full potential of his abilities in the turf grades.
- Fourth XI Brett Bentley. Thanks to Brett for all of his help throughout the year. For doing extra things like, setting up tables and chairs, putting up umbrellas, and making phone calls when extra players were needed. Brett has made my job easier and I thank him for that.
- Fifth XI James Purcell, in his first year with the club, improved enormously behind the stumps, topping the club for stumpings. He never complained about his low place in the batting order, where his job was to save us, which he did many times. Off the field, he was quick to help out, doing the little and big things that make a captain's life easier.
- Sixth XI Andrew Bishop was a welcomed Club, and cricket, debutant at the mildly mature age of 42. From a decorated football background Bish joined his son Campbell in their first season at Newtown. A natural sportsman, his initial plan was to play a few games with his son, however, his interest and form improved dramatically as the season and good times continued. A valuable opening bowler who is encouraging and enthusiastic in the field, he is a great example for the many juniors in the sixths. Bish was a vital assistant to his captain on game day doing more than his fair share of umpiring without complaining, he was also a great supporter of under 15/Sixths training where he was a willing participant in all drills.
A great addition to the club as a genuine club person and worthy recipient of the Sixth Eleven Captain's award.
