Two Blues retain Crane Cup

Despite the First XI going down to Bell Post Hill the club retained the Neville Crane Challenge Cup at the weekend. Victories by the Seconds, Thirds and Fourths secured 6 of a possible 10 club championship points to ensure the cup stayed at Queen's Park.

The First XI went down in a thriller on Stinton Oval posting 8 for 187 only to be over run in the second last over. Tim Clark led the way with 81 only to see a fourth wicket partnership of 92 by ex-pat Brad Stacey and Richie Hassett tilt the game the Hill's way. Scott Hovey with three wickets and Rod Kiddle (two) brought the game alive but the visitors steadied to claim the points. Mick Kelson did admirably as fill in wicketkeeper snaring four catches.

The Seconds did their best to lose the match after bowling the home side out for 96. With only the injured Ian Hastie to bat, Matt Jackson and Chris Hadfield conjured the winning runs after the side had slipped to 7/72. Matt also claimed 3/32 while Andy Garrigan's 30 was the difference between the two sides. The Twos now need to defeat Geelong West in round 13 to snare a finals berth.

The Thirds had a comfortable win to take top spot on the ladder while the Fourths cemented a finals place in similar manner. Brendan Twaddle (3/9) did the damage for the Thirds and Luke Wierzbowski (60) and Jamie Pescott (75) took full advantage with the bat. In the Fourths Mark Giles (3/40) and Russell Mitchell (69 not out) completed the victory.

Steve Lewis's Fifths snuck into the final four with a good win over East Belmont. The highlight of the day came from Paul Sheahan who smashed his maiden century from just 69 balls. Shifty smashed nine fours and six sixers to ensure the win and bring up his 1000th run with the club. Mark Turnley also enjoyed the afternoon scoring his first half century with the club.

Hart takes out major raffle

Club President Scott Mullen was the lucky winner of the major prize last Sunday. The final two came down to Damien DeGrandi and Scott (both club sponsors). Hart chose to go the whole hog in a brave and successful call. Thanks to Specs and Chisa for ensuring the raffle was another success.

The Playtpus

- 1 vote - Chrisso Hadfield ... Playing for the sons of guns standing at first slip with a roll your own hanging from his lip, a high calibre example for the kids.
- 1 vote and first of probably many to Josh Barnes for not taking the u/11 coach's advice to hit the ball along the ground by smashing two sixes over his head at square leg.
- 2 votes (half each per catch) to Kelso. For an unco fielder you don't make a bad wicketkeeper. Son of Gilchrist has arrived!
- 1 vote to former President Paul Anderson for putting his foot in it at the Past Players dinner and having to make a hasty retraction.
- 1 vote to the Seconds Skipper who doesn't seem to want to play finals by finding new a diverse ways to get injured.
- 2 votes to Darren Fleet for spiking his aforementioned skipper in a bold coup attempt. Fortunately Gags was on hand to settle the issue.
- 3 votes each to the Pres., Club Captain and Club Coach. Let's read the rule book before launching at the umpires next time. However, boys, we are still on your side!
- 1 vote each to the raffle boys for keeping the money in the club. Not that he really needs.
- 1 vote to Craney for winning the Past Players raffle. Just goes to show that what goes around comes around!
- 1 vote each to the Guns who couldn't beat the Sons in the inaugural match.
- 1 vote to Sam Loftus for destroying a perfectly good Twenty20 match by smashing us all over the Park.
- 1 vote each to GT and Barnso for rapid fire wicket preparation for the disability games. Put that resume in for the big job, GT.
