FIRSTS

defeated Highton
on Stinton Oval

RESULT – won outright by 9 wickets

Umpires – G. Fazen & W. Jervies

Needing to boost their points total with some urgency Newtown & Chilwell have raced to a first innings lead against Highton at Stinton Oval. The Blues were on top from the moment Simon Rau bowled Tim Boyle with the second ball of the match and although Paul Michell and to a lesser extent Nick Hallam and Steven Bone provided some resistance the Heat were bowled out by Rau and Scott Mullen in 42 overs for 113.

After a 51 opening stand between Yves Roussety and Hayden Clarke set Newtown & Chilwell on their way the home side stuttered losing 5-25 to Aaron and Tony Fuller. But Barry Tsitas and Simon Pearce regained control so that the home side could claim six points and send Highton back in for six overs at the end of an action packed day.

Simon Rau swept through the Heat's upper order to set up a huge outright win for the home side. His four wickets was matched by Adam Wiseman to complete the visitors' capitulation for just 86. After the tea break Rod Kiddle and Mick Kelson grabbed the opportunity for valuable time at the wicket to complete a nine wicket win for Two Blues.

Fifths Black Ant Report

Day two was a pearler, the bloke upstairs blessing us with plenty of the blue stuff and a breeze to help the bowlers. The "ring-ins" shared the new ball. James getting the early breakthroughs while Cam threatening to break through bone as well as batting line-ups. Then came the precious time to call in Left-Armer Les and his venerable boots. Surely these had been around when Eve was snaking the ball past Adam on the plastic in Eden too. The shoelaces were more afayed (boom boom) than the blokes facing Cam!

But those boots carry him smoothly to the popping crease and he got us the break we needed. And it was Les, coming back for a second bone-creaking spell late in the day, who got us the big one, their best batter, brilliantly caught by Lochie Dowling. The youngster then got himself involved in a run-out and we were back in businesses.

But a couple of dropped catches left us at one over to go, nine wickets down, two runs needed by the batters. Happily number 11 tried to win the game with a six instead of a couple of nudges, miscued and the "ring-ins" combined to complete the result before disappearing deep inside a ring of team-mates.

The man of the match decision is always a hard one ... James Radcliffe turned in a superb all-round performance and gets a highly commended. But the winner was Jonty, not just for his innings, or the run-out his namesake, even Joey Solomon, would have applauded, but for taking a catch off the captain's bowling ... at the fourth juggle. It's a great game, this cricket. Nice drop, too, this Cascade.

Sixths Black Ant Report

Round 7 versus North Geelong at home at Eastern Park, we batted 1st with Tim Andrews and Jack Clonan off to a flyer. Tim particularly enjoyed facing the new ball smashing 3 sixers in his rapid fire 39. Jarrold Andrews made 62 not out in the morning and batted with his dad briefly before being run out. Chappy was his usual patient and punishing self, Josh Grabowski made 60 not out in the juniors and was just hitting his straps when dismissed for 20. Chappy was congratulated then asked to leave the ball he cracked his 3rd consecutive fifty.

Turtle (40) was joined by Cam Bishop who had his first serious hit in the seniors. Following up from his dual 4 wicket haul last week Campbell backed up his 52 not out in the under 15s with a cheeky 36 not out, including a six over mid wicket. Dave Johnson was at the crease for the last 4 overs and smacked a quick 40 not out.

The magpies captain said 246 was not enough, but he may have just been being optimistic. The afternoon tea was possibly the days highlight with a spread fit for an "Eastern Gardens party", the visitors were suitably impressed.

Flushed with a smorgasbord of sandwiches and mums home cooked savoury scones, Sam Connelly took the new ball with the wind over his shoulder and ended up with his best figures in the seniors of 3 for 23. Andrew Bishop picked up a wicket with a brilliant catch by his son at mid wicket. Tim Andrews got right on top after his wicket less debut taking a sensational 4 for 11. Dave Johnson chimed in with 2 vital wickets claiming the dangerous Russ Mundy via a terrific Cam Bishop outfield catch. North Geelong all out 114, for our sixth consecutive win, probably our best team effort so far.

Sixths Black Ant Report

East Belmont came at us with all guns blazing. Despite them having strategies and extra bowlers Jason Connelly and Campbell Bishop still managed to reach retirement at the mandatory 50. Tim Andrews (37) continued his good early form at the top of the innings despite being involved in the run out of his son for the second week running.

Josh Grabowski (30) was at his usual creative best in a fantastic partnership with his under 15 team mate "little Bish"(50). We finished with a respectable 228, knowing the big hitting opposition would have a real go at us.

Sam Connelly took an early wicket and Andrew Bishop got the other opener immediately after being hit out of the park's Belmont took control again with more big hitting and a couple of missed chances, with their 3rd and 4th batsmen reaching retirement. Tim Andrews lost the tactical battle with his hard hitting opponent, batsmen number 5. Chappy and Johnno tried to stem the tide and picked up wickets along with slowing the run rate. The breaks tended to go E Belmont's way as they found the gaps and survived a "close" run out. To their credit they over took the target in the 2nd last over in what was an entertaining game.

Just our 2nd loss for the year with a game against our round 1 conquerors St Joeys to come. Hopefully we can hit back with a bigger and more successful effort for the last game before the break.

Junior Scores

Under 17s

Due to rain the first week the game was reduced by ten overs to 45 overs. Modewarre/Barrabool batted first and made a very healthy score. All our bowlers and fielders worked hard to contain a very talented side in trying conditions and with a wet ball. The run chase was positive, we lost our first wicket in the 19th over (1/72) Blake Anderson had made 38 and Tim Sanderson 31, Nick Sutcliffe came to partner Shannan Gove during the 31st over with the score at 4/118, when he departed in the 41st for a terrific 61 we were in with a chance at 5/198. Shannan finished with 33. Alas we ran out of overs and we left for home 16 runs short of target.

All up a great allround performance from the boys. We kept out the good balls and hit the bad ones for four, while also knocking up our fair share of well run ones and twos. Steady bowling saw wickets fall regularly in keeping the opposition to a moderate total.

While a few catches went down, we continue to show improvement in all areas of our cricket and terrific team ethic. Congratulations to our Geelong College boys who won the Victorian Primary Schools Grade 6 cricket State Championship on Friday, Dec 2. Nine members of the Geelong College side are N&CCC U13 players, playing across our three Saturday morning teams. A great reflection on our junior program.

The inaugural Golf Day was held on Friday 9th December at the East Geelong Golf Club. The day was an Ambrose event that catered for the beginners as well as the pros.

In the end the highly professional team of Stephen Illingworth, Bruce Nunn, Jim Cail & Kristen Gleeson won with a score of 13 under. Tim Robertson representing the Collendina Cricket Club took the individual honours by acing the 8th Par 3.

A big thankyou to Colin Robson from Leisure Networks for his organising of the event, to the East Geelong Golf Club for hosting the event and to the sponsors who contributed with prizes.

The day proved highly successful raising approx $2000 for the Barwon Disability Cricket League.

Platypus Votes season 2005-2006

For those of you who are unaware of what the platypus is all about here is an abbreviate history of the platypus. The platypus is a wonderful and unique creature it is one of two Monotremes (if there are two why aren't they called duotremes?) or egg laying mammals. The Platypus being amphibious loves to play in the wet and hence when it's raining and cricket is cancelled the Platy comes out to play. So the Platypus celebrates all things stupid, ridiculous and all alcohol related high jinx, this may explain why Knackers is a multiple winner. Highlights of wet days play include Goose's 5 iron from 12th through the clubroom window, Rocket falling of a three legged chair 13 times before he realized a leg was missing, Sarge stealing the Anakie Duck, Dev Royce's ambassadorial role, Budget's version of Macho Man on the bar at the Diggers and so and so on it goes. We recognize these special efforts with votes which are to be placed in the Platypus's mailbox on our website or the traditional mail housed in the clubrooms.

3 Votes Crofty playing his first game at QP "Which rooms are we in"

1 Vote Greeny taking crutches to a game just in case the drumstick snapped again.

3 Votes John Rees appealing for bowled !!!!!

1 vote Newtown's own Dennis Walter look-alike Bretto

3 votes Hock has hit a few Tommies this year but not as big as when one of his deliveries ended up on the clubrooms at North Geelong (please see ball attached to our clubroom ceiling)

3 Votes BIG Ty Casbault ordering a club shirt "I'll have an SM yeah Small Marquee"

2 votes Ty again his follow through consists of pulling down his shirt and hitching up his pants, so if an appeal is necessary there is a fair bit of gut and arse hanging out, just ask Tim Degrandi

2 votes gags after another terrible decision went against Eckie "Someone remove his shoelaces or else who knows what will happen"

1 vote to Big Chisa convincing victim number 701 to commit suicide. SORRY SHOULD'VE MENTIONED THAT ONE SO SOON AFTER ECKIE'S DISMISSAL

1 Vote Warrick the most encouraging skipper ever! Congratulates the lads on afternoon tea effort in full voice while their still trying to get the glad wrap off.

3 votes and early nomination for the Roo driving award, Patch couldn't walk, talk but drove home even though BJ was waiting in the car to give him a lift.

1 Vote Bree (womens XI) got 50 even after taking batting lessons from Knackers.

1 vote to Shifty Sheahans eldest son "Jai" for bowling bean balls and bruising the crap out of Ty Casbault's large breast.

No votes to us for losing both the Pearce/Hynes Shield and Crane Cup in the period of eight days. Time to get serious boys.

1 vote Bazza for bowling the first, last and 214 other balls of the day against Joeys. Had the Joeys spectators fooled, as well as us!

2 votes to Heart. The seed is sown, life as you know soon to end!

2 votes, The Pres, keeps firing off bullets at the guys attending weddings, but has missed most of the season due to them!

3 Votes Rauy (early nomination for Ratshit Cup) unavailable but does he let anyone know, No well not until the boys are half way through warm up.

2 Votes Battler, What a stirring rendition of the classic song "Memories"

1 vote Blakey for cheating in backyard cricket against Sammy Mitchell, they play it tough at Geelong. He did however get into double figures for the first time in his cricketing career

3 votes lefty, bowls three overs at half rat power, sleeps for our entire innings then calls in sick for work with crook hammies, Don't over exert yourself lefty

1 votes Knackers the Offie, has slowed down considerably, but still can't hit the pitch. Umpire refuse to call wides on the basis the tea was imminent.

2 votes Blake Anderson, after having been taken off and replaced by knackers at the bowling crease "Don't replace me and bowl that shi...."

2 votes Shirty, in career best form plays one game has three of to recover!

1 vote Ty takes a catch in slips and justifiable celebrates, not the wicket but the fact he has earned 10 points on the club champion tally sheet. It's all about you Casa.

1 Vote Andy Duff has claimed has met his match in the eating stakes, this coming from the man who ordered 60 pieces of chicken from KFC.

3 votes Shirty, whilst bowling at North Geelong.” I’ve got this bloke stumped, he just asked whether I am bowling leggies or offies” Had he stumped all right, on how do we get the ball off the roof.

1 vote Jimma Hadfield moved to Cairns to save money on fake tan.

2 votes Andy Duff of hearing of a recent altercation involving the Hadfield boys stated “If James had of died I would be playing 4ths.”

2 votes Boris after James had bowled well and claimed 4 for stuff all, “Need s a smack in the head more often”

No Votes to the mindless prats that attacked the Hadfield boys and no it wasn’t the McCoys

1 vote Chisa rings through the test scores to goose only problem it was 4am in Dubai.

1 vote Knackers has been officially branded a dirty, sleazy old man.

1 vote Biggsy great Movember effort the best porn mustache seen in along time

2 votes Deano Duthie openly admitted to purchasing the Best of the Backstreet Boys album

2 votes each Baz, Chappy and Jonno for gambling on blood sports namely “Cock Fighting”

2 votes Sarge Lewis after been harassed by the Highton hoons gave em a fair spray after the 4ths secured an outright win.

1 vote Rocket old red ink is back

3 votes Chappy went fishing from the balcony and caught a very large SNAPPER, had to call in Josh Hunt to get himself of the hook.

2 votes international sports journo Warrick Hadfield didn’t know the hat trick doesn’t carry over from one game to another.

2 votes Chisa at a recent auction “I’ve only got $170 in my wallet “auctioneer $170 to the man over there. Chisa near shi.... himself.

2 votes Luke “Sponge Bob Karrie Webb Mike Atherton no chin Budget squares pants “the reason I’ve never filled out a player profile I’ve got too many nicknames - Your Kidding!

3 votes Josh Friend lives 300 metres from east Geelong Golf Club where a charity golf day was held. Yet he arrived 15 mins late due to the fact he went to Queens Park.

1 vote Jorden Lewis gets hit for 4 and responds with a bean ball. Oh it doesn’t matter it was only Gabby from Highton.

2 votes Sargey, strapping on the half mannequin and putting on a body building display, then proceeds to act like the new teenage mutant turtle “ Sargeyannleo”

3 votes each Hoss and Sarge sword fighting in the clubrooms

2 votes Sargey “I love being a turtle”

Geelong College Year 6 cricket team

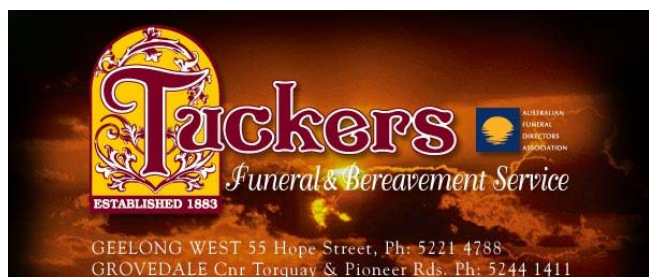

THE Geelong
College Year 6
cricket team is officially the best in Victoria.

The team beat St Therese's Primary School from Essendon by four wickets to win the Victorian Primary Schools Sport Association state cricket Grand Final at Yarra Valley Grammar School.

Hero for College was Tom Goodear who took a hat-trick and also two catches to help dismiss St Therese's for 78.

College then lost six wickets achieving the target.

The team is coached by Year 6 teacher Mark Neeld but nearly all play with N&CCC juniors.
