round 7

FIRSTS

drew with St Josephs on Zampatti Oval

RESULT – Draw

Umpires – Geoff Deppeler & Wayne Richards

Rain and some stout resistance from Sam Clark denied St Josephs the points in their clash with Newtown and Chilwell at Zampatti Oval. Despite a marathon bowling spell and a five wicket haul by Barry Tsitas Joeys had set up what they would have believed was a winning total with some strong all round batting. Bryce Foster and Tim Bye both scored sixties as the home side ran up 8-256. Whether that would have been enough will remain for ever in the ether, because the Blues, although perhaps just down on the rate required would have been fairly satisfied with their final total of 5-179.

FIFTHS BLACK ANT REPORT

Greenie reckons God watches cricket, and when he sees good people, he does good things for them. The more secular among us reckon God helps them that help themselves.

Whatever, a whole bunch of blokes did enough good things to produce a good win after we had the good luck to win the toss and bat. Kibbo turned in his best performance for the club, opening the batting and getting us to 0-50, with Greenie paying considerably more than lip-service to goodness at the other end. This, by now, was self help on steroids – and vaseline, too, as we glued Dog back together after he decided to let his mouth do the talking, instead of his bat. The little collapse that followed his loose-lipped departure threatened to sink the ship. Rather though, it merely opened the porthole for another one of God's good people. J. Lewis. Bat yourself in son, we cajoled. There's plenty of time. Kaboom! If this bloke ever lasts 10 overs, he will be 100. Great little match restoring knock, followed by yet another chirpy contribution from Stumper Purcell, and an 'andily struck last ball six from Andy Lee.

We reckoned they dropped 10 catches. Turning to page one of cricket's self little help book, where it says catches win matches, we promised ourselves not to drop one. We didn't. Nugget and 'andily did the job with the new ball, then enter the terror twins, Specs and Sando – Specs with the wind of course as befits a bowler of his heritage. He got their gun; Les almost got himself a hat-trick, the first wicket with a flying c&b. The old bloke at mid-on held a catch to match it a bit later and the spinners moved in to mop up, with James getting his now mandatory stumping. "I was getting a bit worried about it coming," he said. In the midst of all the banter and philosophy, another axiom to ponder ... if you do the little things well it's amazing how the big things happen. Afternoon tea, right down the smoked salmon sandwiches and Dog's Lazy Susan of dips, could have been served at Buckingham Place. The kit was packed ready to go into the Beamer boot by person or person's unknown but as of now not unthanked. (Thanks.) Blokes offered their subs without the need to call them into a quiet room. Good people for sure, Greenie.

SIXTHS BLACK ANT REPORT

Father / son Gary Simpson, mild mannered accountant and under 13 coach, Dad of 15 year old Tim, graced the turf for their 1st senior game together.

Tim Andrews finally abandoned Lethbridge to join his son on the field after a long involvement coaching juniors at Newtown and playing in the Southern Leigh.

The Hillbillies sent us in and we were off to a flyer on the new batsmen friendly carpet at East park No. 1. Under 15 opener / Wicket keeper Jack Clonan was the steadier being dismissed LBW for 43 well made. Chappy typically waited for the bad delivery and compiled his regulation 50.

Under 15 captain Josh Grabowski (56 ret.) slayed the attack with his junior team mate Jarrod Andrews (34). With the run rate climbing Tim Andrews hit a brisk 20 and Andrew bishop and Tim Simpson also slapped a few about in the last overs. 274 is a good target anywhere off 40 overs, but smallish grounds and big hitters are what make the 6th grade fun and unpredictable.

The Hill batted steadily in the good conditions and despite the best efforts Andy Bishop, Sam Connelly and Tim Andrews were over 100 before we managed to claim our first scalp.

With the required run rate climbing 13 year old dynamo Campbell Bishop knocked over 2 batmen in 2 balls. Denied his hat trick this time, he managed to repeat the dose after team run out, a second crack at a hatty was thwarted yet again.

The Hills chances diminished as Under 15 Quick Sam Connelly claimed 2 more wickets. Fielding highlights were the great catching particularly from Gary "the claw" Simpson snagging 3 at first slip on debut. Jarrod Andrews also had sticky fingers picking up a couple in the outfield. Chappy chimed in with 2 wickets in another all round performance.

Standout performance by Cam Bishop was the days main highlight, finishing with 4 for 23, one catch and a golden duck for good measure, (4 for 26 in the U15s as well) could not wipe the smile off his face all week, well done!

Win number 5, North Geelong next week another challenge for the youthful group.

The VCCL Selectors yesterday named the squad of 13 players to represent Victoria in the annual Australian Country Cricket Championships to be conducted in Mandurah, WA, from 2-15 January 2006.

The Selectors had a difficult job naming the last 13 following a trial game played at Lara on Sunday, 20th November, and a few of the players named as emergencies will feel somewhat unlucky to have missed selection in the main squad.

The squad named to represent the State in 2006 is:
Brad Glenn (Capt.) - Mornington Peninsula
Paul Bradley - Mornington Peninsula
Neil Barfuss - Mornington Peninsula
Kent Hammond - Traralgon
Chris Bambury - Ballarat
Sam Loftus - Geelong
Brad Stacey - Geelong
Richie Hassett - Geelong
Brad Hauenstein - Geelong
Charlie Owen - Geelong
Justin Miller - Geelong
Adam Burns - Bendigo
Chris Hopper - Horsham

BARWON COUNTRY WEEK JAN 2 – JAN 6 2005

Junior country week provides the opportunity for kids to play a week of concentrated cricket at a competitive level. Players will compete in age groups under 17, 15 and 13 and will be allocated to teams which play four one day matches over the week.

Teams will be published in the Geelong Advertiser on December 20 and opening day will take place on Monday Jan 2 St Mary's Football club (West Kardinia) @ 10:00 am. Players will meet their coaches, team mates, receive draws for the week and any other information required.

Interested players should fill out the bottom section and return to you team coach by Saturday December 3. Please be aware that players need to be available for the full week January 2 to 5.

I..... Give permission for my child..... To participate in country week Jan 2 – Jan 6, I have enclosed $5.00 which will assist is the cost of running the week. My child plays club cricket for..... in the under Age group. (Permission slips must be returned to club by Mon Dec 3)
