Sixths go down in rain game

The Father and Son Sixth XI failed to take out the premiership as wet weather intervened on grand final day.

Perhaps a little more thought could have gone into finals scheduling, but in the end the boys can hold their heads high after a fine season of learning and competitive spirited cricket.

An interesting way to decide a premiership, can only be the way to describe a season which ends in a washed out grand final, no reserve day and little rules to guide the players and umpires.

RESULT – match abandoned due to rain. Premiership awarded to East Belmont

Umpire – J McGillivray and B McCrae

CHUCKY MAKES TO BIG TIME - WELL ALMOST!

29/01/2007

Tim Clark has recently been playing for the Camberwell Magpies 3rds. He called father Gavan last Friday night to advise that he had been promoted. The question back was "is it to the 2nds"? No was the reply, it is higher...certainly not the 1sts I said?...no was the reply, higher.....not the Vic's.....Yep 12th man.

Chucky replaced Jon Moss last Saturday. Got onto the field for 10 overs for no mistakes. Mixed well with the lads & thoroughly enjoyed the experience. Good to see another NCCC lad have a run on the "G".

A cool and windy day for the restart to the season. Batting first we started slowly but steadily to be 1/20-odd off 8 overs before losing our way completely to be 6/32 just four overs later as the Groves boys' steady line and length did the job on our middle order. Tim Fluker continued his great form to bat through our short innings, but our meagre total was never enough. Improvement next week we hope!

N&CCC Chisholm 7/147 defeated Queenscliff 59 at Queenscliff on Sunday

George Chis won the toss and we quickly inserted the Coutas to see what they had. Jamie Harrison and Hugo Steiny soon had the Seagulls on a backward spiral at 2/2 and both bowled excellent opening spells.

What was to follow would overjoy any coach of an under age team. 1 wide and 1 bye in 26 overs of good solid line and length bowling saw us dismiss the Coutas for a lowly 59.

George Camo, Eddy the Rat, Tom Chis, Josh Carr, Tommy Gee and Matt Allen all continued the good start we got and bowled very well. A couple of misfields and a couple of spilled chances spoilt what could have been a near faultless display in the field but still 59 should not present too many problems.

Without appearing to be arrogant and because Q'cliff didn't know our players from a bar of soap Captain George decided not to open himself and in fact turn the batting line up on its head and give some of the blokes who don't get a hit every week a hit in the upper order.

Mason and Rex therefore strode to the wicket in the unfamiliar role of openers.

Mase continued his run of outs with a soft dismissal----there is a big one not too far away for this young fella--but Rex living on the same piece of luck that followed Matty Hayden on Sun arvo made a carrier high 27 and was still there when we passed their score 3 wickets down.

A couple of bad umpiring decisions by yours truly GLC cost a two of our blokes a chance for valuable practice. Hugo was given out on what should have been signalled a no ball and Josh was given run out by a direct hit from mid wicket when he probably deserved the benefit of the doubt.

Bernie Chomers, Matty Allen, Josh Carr, Jamie H, Eddy R and Camo all reached double figures with only Jamie having the time to reach 30 retired. The Chisholm boys didn't get a chance to strut their stuff this week end but their time will come as the season draws to an end.

Mason Wood	2	DNB	1	Catch
Rex Jelbert	27	DNB
Bernie Chomley	11	DNB
Tom Goodear	1	2/0/0/5
Josh Carr	12	2/0/1/14
Matt Allen	14	1/0/1/3	1	Catch
Hugo Steinfort	0	4/1/1/4
Jamie Harrison	30*	4/1/1/11
Eddy Ratcliffe	20*	4/0/2/8	1	Catch
George Cameron	14*	4/1/2/5	1	Catch
Tom Chisholm	DNB	4/0/1/8
George Chisholm	DNB	DNB	2	Catches--W/Keeper.

Five victories from 6 games will have us somewhere near the top 4 so our good form needs to continue if we are to taste finals cricket.

Under 13

N&CCC Royce 5/173 (Josh Saunders 57) defeated North Geelong 7/126 at Elderslie West

N&CCC Barnes 3/125 defeated Grovedale 8/79 at King Lloyd 2

A super effort by the team of just seven from Queen's Park saw the lads have their best win of the season. Solid batting from Danny C, Josh and Rhys set up a defensible score then some super off side bowling to the 3/2 field and energetic fielding saw the boys home. A great team effort with contributions from all players showed fantastic team spirit.

Danny Carragher	36 not out	4/1/1/7	1	catch
Rhys Thompson	17 not out	4/0/2/19
Adam Box	0	4/2/2/8
Josh Barnes	21 not out	3/0/0/7	2	catch 1 run out
Danny Breen	4 not out	4/1/1/14
Jack West	5	4/0/1/10	1	catch
James Whelan	0	4/1/1/14

Parents should be aware that if players are not available they should ring David Barnes on 0417 123 669.

N&CCC Pearce 2/130 defeated Thomson 81 at Elderslie East

An excellent batting performance setup the win against Thomson, with only 2 wickets falling in the 27 overs.

Oliver Price continued his good recent form with 16no, Richard Heath's his new bat worked well for 10no and valuable contributions from Mitchell Davis (13no), Jake Hickey (12no) and Tom Jefferies(10no) gave Thomson a target of 130.

After a good start by the Thompson (0-41 off 10 overs) the wickets started to tumble with 10 falling for 40 runs. Tom Jefferies bowled three batsmen, Toby Sudweeks sent down three tidy overs of leg spin and picked up a wicket with a wrong-un and Fletcher Jefferies and Cameron Duggan both picked up two wickets a piece.

Tom Jefferies 3-2, Fletcher Jefferies 2-10, Cam Duggan 2-11, Toby Sudweeks 1-0, Richard Heath 1-12

Jai Sheahan and Darcy Del Rio enjoy the spoils of victory after claiming the under 14 Commonwealth Bank Victorian championship at the weekend.

U14 Barwon Rockets 7/160 (M. Condy 56, M. Buchanan 53) defeated Southern Rangers 10/109 (J. Sheahan 2/23)

U14 Match Report

Batting first the Rockets compiled a healthy total of 7/160 off their allotted 40 overs. The highlight of the batting was an excellent partnership of 67 runs from Meyrick Buchanan and Michael Condy. Buchanan was dismissed for 53 with Condy following for a well made 56. The Rockets lost wickets in their quest for a big total with most batsmen sacrificing their wickets for the team. The batting effort was highlighted by sensible placement, clean hitting and excellent running between the wickets which placed great pressure on the fielding team.

Southern Rangers lost early wickets in their run chase and slumped to 5/50 with wickets to Sheahan, McGlinchey, Condy and McLean. Great fielding resulted in 3 run out as wickets continued to fall at regular intervals. Tight spells from leg spinner Chris McKay and Matt Elliot kept the game within Barwon's grasp. Despite some late lusty hitting from the Rangers tail another run out followed by a wicket from a Sheahan yorker off the very next ball saw the Rockets secure a well deserved victory.

Michael Condy from Manifold Heights CC was named as Player of the Final and presented with a trophy by Cricket Victoria President Mr Bob Merriman. All team members and officials were presented with medallions and caps at the presentation ceremony.
