New improved website – check it out!

www.newtownchilwellcc.com.au

In the past, our web-site has won awards for the quality of the content. Maintaining that tradition, we have given the site a face-lift in the last little while.

A terrific addition is the new video gallery. There you will find some memorable moments from our recent past, not the least the singing of the club song after Fleetie's Twos won the grand final at Lara last year.

The gallery now contains the bowling action videos from the Transport Finance Home Loans Elite Cricket Coaching Clinic held on October 15 at Queens Park.

For the blokes who took part it is a great chance to remember what they learned on the day, to re-visit the changes they have made to their actions on the advice of Mark Atkinson and Ben Sawyer and to make sure they're still carrying them out efficiently.

Constant improvement requires constant monitoring of how we go about our cricket.

The feedback from the clinic by the way has been overpoweringly positive. Parents of the junior participants are telling us they were thrilled that our club went to the trouble to put on a clinic of this type.

Some of our young players have used it as the inspiration to put aside other sports over summer and concentrate on cricket.

One of those, Jackson Davis, has been rewarded with his first game on turf. No doubt, plenty more will follow in Jackson's sprigged boot marks.

And speaking about helping out the juniors, congratulations to those senior players who made an appearance at the Milo Have A Go game last Thursday. Again, the feedback has been excellent.

Another good thing about re-visiting the picture gallery, and the web-site in general, is that it is a reminder of the businesses who support our club, including Transport Finance. Keep them in your mind when ever you're looking to do business.

In the meantime, click on to the site now. It's a beauty, as good, if not better, than most club cricket sites anywhere in Australia.

President's Dinner – November 11

I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club annual President's Dinner to be held at Queen's Park on November 11.

Scott Mullen

Our special guest, and he is rather special, is none other than Max Walker. See pages 2 and 3.

Bridge closure

Please note that the Queen's Park bridge will be closed this Saturday, November 11 from 2 to 6pm. Powercor will be relocating lightpoles during this time so entrance will be via Scenic Road.

Pearce/Hynes Trophy

This weekend sees the club battle for the Charlie Pearce/Dennis Hynes Trophy.

The trophy is named in honour of two great contributors to our clubs. The Magpie and Two Blue First elevens fight for the prestigious trophy every time we play each other.

GO Blues, it is time to bring the trophy back to the Park.

Hi again all,

Time once again to update you about our latest committee meeting held last night.

Make sure you have in your diary, November 11, the President's Dinner as it will be your LAST chance to enjoy the rooms in there current state.

Our guest speaker is Max Walker who played 40 Tests for Australia and 90-plus games of VFL for Melbourne. These days he is one of Australia's highest profile motivational speakers.

It is a coup for our club to get him and what he has to say is inspirational for everyone - players, spouses and young children alike. So get your friends and family along and your special clients too.

This year we also have a special door prize for the wives and girlfriends, a treatment at a day spa.

Costs for the dinner are $40 a single and $70 for a couple which includes a two course meal and of course Maxie. Drinks, as always, are at bar prices, and since we have the cheapest pots either side of the Barwon, it's a pretty cheap night out. The evening will kick off at 7:30.

The refurbishment of our club rooms is looking like it will get underway over the next two weeks and this is both an exciting and anxious time for us. We can look forward to having one of the best facilities in the region come next season, but there are plenty of issues to address while the work is underway.

The committee is working furiously on those as we speak and we will keep you up to date with progress as it happens. Stay tuned to the photos section of the website for progress of the works over the next 6 months.

On membership, the October 31 deadline has come and gone and there are still a number who haven't paid up or made arrangements. We are allowing one month's grace but once November 30 comes around, if you're not financial, you're not playing. Thanks again to those that are.

Our all new web-site is now up and running, check it out, you won't be disappointed. There will be constant updates on there on all things Newtown. I would like to re-enforce one of the messages on the new home page. Support the sponsors who are supporting your club. Without them, subs would be astronomical. Our sponsors are making a huge contribution to you being able to play cricket each weekend so make sure we support them.

Finally, there were two issues that were vigorously debated by the committee.

The first is attendance at training.

Our club is committed to constant improvement both on the field and off it. The consensus is that we will only achieve that on the field if people are prepared to put in at training, and to even organise their own "extra" sessions.

So get to training and when you get there, go hard, right to the end. Make sure the blokes who bat at the end get as good a go as those at the start by being prepared to bowl to them. Put in when it comes to fielding drills.

The other matter is that of our baggy blue cap. The captains will once again at training ask all their players to wear our traditional cap, or a white floppy hat... your choice.

Once that's done, I would respectfully ask that public debate over the matter cease. Successful clubs, those committed to constant improvement, do not air their dirty laundry in public. The matter is now an on-going one for the committee and the committee only. It will be constantly monitored and addressed as we consider appropriate.

We do not consider it appropriate to do so on match day when players' attention most properly should be focussed totally on securing six points for the club.

I would appreciate the co-operation of everyone on this issue.

In the meanwhile, I look forward to see you, your families, friends and clients at the President's Dinner on November 11. The booking form will be available in the club rooms tonight or you can e-mail me on scott@scottmullen.com.au

Good luck for those playing on the weekend, bring home the bacon.

PRESIDENT'S DINNER TO BE BROADCAST TO THE WORLD

This year comes a first for the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club's President's Dinner as we celebrate our last major function before the refurbishment.

The talk by our special guest speaker, Maxwell Henry Norman Walker of North Hobart, Tasmania, Victoria and Australia, is going to be recorded for later broadcast on Radio Max.

And Radio Max, yet another of the many strings to the big bloke's bow, is being broadcast to the world on the web.

Your clapping, your laughter, your question of the big fella, will be held all over the world.

So don't miss this opportunity to really be part of something else new for our club in a year of innovation and renovation.

For those who come in late, Max Walker, born in Tasmania, came to Melbourne to play in the VFL with Melbourne.

He also had a few games of cricket with that club - as a batsman - but keen eyes reckoned he could bowl a bit too.

So, eventually, did the Australian selectors who picked him as the great warhorse behind Australia's most famous sheila, Lillian Thomson.

So in addition to 90 plus VFL games - in his second he was in the ruck against Polly Farmer and Sam Newman - he played 39 Tests for Australia.

After retiring, he became a commentator - first gig behind the microphone at Kardinia Park - an author, a motivational speaker, a publisher and now a multi-media magnate.

It usually costs $140-plus to hear Max Walker talk ... We're offering you a real bargain at $40 for a two course meal and drinks at bar prices, especially when we have the cheapest pots in Geelong.

And of course, it's the last chance to celebrate our club in the old rooms.

The million dollar refurbishment is now upon us.

Ladies are more than welcome. We have a door prize of a spa treatment for them.

And we really encourage our juniors, particularly the 17-year-olds, to come along, to bring their parents, too.

We need to know if you're coming by Wednesday, so e-mail: scott@scottmullen.com.au straight away to book your seat ... Or whole table.

What a great way to repay your best clients ... A chance to hear one of Australia's legendary sportsmen and motivational speakers.

Further details are on our brand new web-site.

See you on the night.

Two Blue Disab crick

The new season of the Barwon Disability Cricket League commenced on Sunday at Newcomb CC with our team going down to Werribee. Highlights of the day were wickets by Sarge and Trent and Mark Commons' return to the team after being freed up from his GCA commitments.

Comment of the day came from acting skipper and wicketkeeper Matho who exclaimed after dropping a sitter of a catch, "Well, it's not my fault."

Next match is November 19th at Colac.

Milestones

Neville Crane with a masterly and match winning 72 in the Fifts exciting win over Manifold Heights became the first player to pass 9000 runs. Craney has scored 12 centuries and 41 fifties in his 345 matches with the club.

Matt Suvoltos made his 2000th run during round 3 at the average of 17.36. Suvo has also claimed 187 wickets at 17.50 with his well flighted leggies.

Mick Kelson made his 1000 club run in round 3 at the fine average of 25.88.

Adam Patching passed the 1000 run mark in his record breaking 191 in round 3 lifting his average by three points to 21.71.

Rhys Bennett will play his 100th game this weekend.

FOURTHS

defeated Torquay at Torquay Primary

RESULT – won by 252 runs

Yeah, one bloke did make 191, but the contributions to a spanking 252 run win on our day trip to Torquay came from just about everywhere.

Kibbo will smilingly tell you he did the right thing, getting out early to get Patch in. When he and Morgo were firing for the second wicket, it was mayhem.

Joy-riders in low flying Tiger Moths were seen putting on helmets. There were complaints about neighbourhood fences being damaged.

Morgo should have got a century, but (departs mumbling) didn't while Patch deserved a double century, especially for the sheer audacity that went with the frenetic race from 150 to 191. It was one the best innings ever played by a N&CCC cricketer, a dozen sixes as proof of the power.

Even with 322 in the bank, the boundaries of the Torquay Primary School are close enough to make seven runs an over gettable. Enter yet another new ball combination for the 4ths of J. Hadfield and J. Simonsen that claimed wickets and reduced the locals to 2-20 from 10.

Jacob was the first of four blokes to get their first club championship points wicket for our club. The others were fellow juniors Ollie Theobald (two) and Anthony Willow Wilson - Morgo had ascribed nicknames to the new balls even before the first bit of the platypus was scuffed – and the persevering Luke Howie.

It took three games and a masters by course work in the vicissitudes of the game before it came but once it did, via the catch of the day by the skipper who saw the blinder all the way into his mits, contrary to all sorts of rumours, well the proverbial flood gates open. Two more wickets – one bowled, one via a smart catch by Purc, then two good catches of Luke's own, it would almost have been Bothamesque if he'd hit the ball a bit better.

Great to see one N. Clarke get a wicket, too. Welcome back big fella.

As Lukie Howie will tell you, cricket can be a mongrel of a game one week, and purebred joy the next. Savour this one fellas, remember how good it felt, especially when we found out not just the 4ths, but all six teams had won, and let's do it again.

A resounding win, but not one to get carried away with, with the opposition still very much in "learning to play the game" mode. Day one saw us batting first, co-captains Tim Fluker and David Boyle leading the away with well made innings' of 52ret and 25 run out respectively, Alex McPherson also continuing his good form with 33. Tim's half century was unusual in that it did not contain a single boundary, with the game somewhat inexplicably being played on the full Winchelsea home oval. Late wickets fell as we chased quick runs at the end, our score of 210 worth plenty on the big oval, the local coaches' story of having once seen an all run SEVEN in a senior game not at all hard to believe! Ned Clonan's early wicket on day two immediately put the Winch boys on the back foot before a good (although very slow) second wicket partnership took the score to nearly 50. Enter school classmates Jack Thackeray and Lachlan Simpson to change all that, 4 wickets in as many overs putting us right on top, before Tim, David and Harry Andrews cleaned up a very weak tail end, several excellent catches highlighting our fielding performance.

Another road trip, this time out to Anakie, looms as our next assignment.

N&CCC Taylor 9/210 Tim Fluker 52ret, Andrew Wilson 11, Dave Boyle 25, Alex McPherson 33, Jack Thackeray 18, John Kirkland 3, Callum Accheni 3, Rowan Kelly 3, Lachlan Simpson 8, Isaac Cato Ono, Ned Clonan 0, Harry Andrews 2no versus Winch at Eastern Reserve, Winchelsea

N&CCC Chisholm 8/234 defeated Bell Park 110

Winning the toss and deciding to bowl is always a risk, but that is what happened on day 1. Pressure was on from the 1st ball and Jamie Harrison delivered when he had thier opener (who had retired for 50 last week) on his way to the pavillion for a King Duck. Good tight bowling backed up by enthusiasm in the field saw regular wickets fall and 110 was the target we needed. With Captain George and Vice Captain Eddie required for a rep game later in the morning. on the 2nd day, we figured that with them both opening we should get off to bright start. Unfortunately both boys were victims of some poor running decisions and both were run out by the 8th over with the score on 25. George Cameron entertained with 23 before gloving one through to the keeper. Jamie Harrison, after an early life, and Tom Chisholm then settled in for a match winning 71 run 5th wicket partnership. Tom, in particular, played the innings of his so far very short career and finished with a chanceless 64 not out.

All other batters gained some valuable batting practice under match conditions. As we bat to the bottom of our list there will plenty of changes to the batting order so that everyone gets similar chances throughout the season.

George Chisholm	6		3.4/0/3/13
Eddie Ratcliffe	5		4/1/1/11
Matt Allen	9		3/0/0/14
George Cameron	23	4/1/1/7	1 catch

Tom Chisholm	64	not out	4/2/1/4 1 catch
Damian Hatch	3	4/2/1/4	1 catch
Josh Carr	19		DNB

Rex Jelbert	DNB	3/0/1/14	1 catch
Mason Wood	DNB		4/1/0/11

All in all a very pleasing win with everybody contributing. At Queens Park again next game v's St Joeyes--never an easy game. See you there and have fun in the meantime.

Two Blue Network. Success Story

The benefits of TB Network can already been seen. It was great to have new sponsors come on board this year, some long-term supporters of the club others altogether new to NCCC. We look forward to mutual beneficial relationships with all.

It is important to get to know your sponsors and for the sponsors to get to know you.

Many people ask is it worth it?

It was great to hear a new sponsor in 0607 on the weekend confirm he had assisted two members of NCCC with his business services. Resulting in new clients to his business and giving great return on investment for his sponsorship of NCCC in 0607.

Remember we are always on the look out for more sponsors and this years "member's incentive" is a great opportunity to add value to the future of your club and expose business to the NCCC network.

Do not let your business miss out on growing with us!
