Arrangements for the remainder of season 607

The top four grades will play rounds as outlined below with the home sides being the 1sts and 3rds. Seconds and 4ths draws are, of course, reversed.

December 9

- 1sts & 3rds versus South Barwon at home
- 5ths versus Highton at Elderslie West
- 6ths versus North Geelong at Eastern Park 1

December 16

- 1sts & 3rds versus Lara at home
- 5ths versus Lara at Lara
- 6ths versus Bell Post Hill at Eastern Park 1

Finals will be played on the weekends of the 13th and 20th January in a final four format in grades.

At this stage there is minimal change to junior fixtures however this may change as the CoGG declares grounds unfit for play.

Trio pass major milestones

Congratulations to three of our club's leaders who passed major milestones over the double header weekend.

Former President Adam O'Connor played his 200th game during round 8. Since making his senior debut in '87/88 Knackers has amassed 3502 runs at 20.97 with three centuries and 13 fifties. His success as a bowler now seems long ago but he also has snared 146 wickets at 21.40 with a best bowling of 8 for 45. Add 88 catches and strangely enough, two stumpings, and Adam O'Connor has proven to be a great contributor in his 200 matches.

Four time premierships player Darren Fleet made his 2000th run on Saturday with a nicely compiled 33 against Newcomb. Enjoying his tenth season at the club, Darren boasts a remarkable record making his 2005 runs at 20.67 with 3 tons and 3 fifties. Combine that with 157 wickets at a miserly 16.45 and a premierships strike rate of one every 28 games he has proven to be a match winner time and time again.

Scott Mullen's dismissal of Jamie McDonald on Sunday was his 100th wicket with the club. The remarkable win over East Belmont was also the Pres's 50th match making it a triple celebration. Scott averages 16.15 per wicket with a best bowling of 7 for 39 in those 50 matches which have yielded two Second XI flags.

Two Blue Scoreboard 607 round 8

FIRSTS

defeated East Belmont at Winter Reserve

RESULT – won by 2 runs

Umpire – Geoff Deppeler

An inspired cameo batting performance by dual First XI premiership star Ben Neville has seen the First XI to a remarkable victory against reigning premiers East Belmont.

On an unforgivingly fast dry ground at Winters Reserve the Ones toiled to hold the home side to 4 for 281 prior to taking on one of the greatest run chases in the club's history. With John Rees (77), skipper Barry Tsitas (34) and Simon Pearce (52) all firing the Two Blues looked well placed at 2/188 after 37 overs.

Wickets tumbled as Ben Neville playing his first game for the club in four seasons took to the wicket with those 13 overs remaining and plundered 74 not out of the last 95 runs of the innings. Six sixes and 3 fours saw him single handedly seal a magnificent victory with just 3 balls remaining on a ground "The Freak" has made his own with some magnificent batting over the years.

FOURTHS

Defeated Newcomb on Shaw Oval

RESULT – won by 152 runs

We won. Beaut little game, a few plans came off, like Lukie just having a right old bash at number 10, the old bloke opening (and as Hoss pointed out, for a while at least, out-scoring Stevie), and revising the batting order a smidgin, meaning Jordie can come in and just bat like Jordie.

Luke's six that struck high on the light pole at Shaw Oval was almost Josh Huntish in its execution and elevation. We bowled well, too, and got off in time to watch Fleet the Magician and his boys win the tight one on Stinton Oval.

Next day, the magic came in other ways both at Stinton and at The Home Of The GCA. The moment when Boris got his first wicket on grass was special, an emblem for our club about effort (two sweat-filled years of it) being rewarded.

The last time Boris missed a training session, Don Bradman was still a young man. And if some of you cringed at the thought of how dedicated he is, and you might not be, well as Boof would say, "do something about it!"

And what about the moment when Benny Neville beat The Home Of The GCA, then kissed his NCCC crest? It probably wasn't a complete surprise. He had turned up out of nowhere at training on Tuesday wearing it, a reminder in a small way, like Boris' unquestioning commitment, that NCCC doesn't stand for Newtown Conditional Cricketers Club, but something far more profound.

And while we focusing on the fact the club song goes We Are The Two Blues, not "What About Me?", a tribute to Disco, who turns up week in and out, suffering the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune and possibly the odd occasional bad decision, all with a smile. Sorry mate, I thought you hit it, but it you were around all the weekend, you will know mine wasn't the worst umpiring effort.

There have been some really good signs the culture of the club is on the improve ... Subs paid on time by most people, rules applying more and more to everyone, and increasingly people being rewarded for effort.

And last weekend, after an at times bugger of a season so far, the 4ths were back among them. Yeeeha!

SIXTHS

defeated Geelong City at Eastern Park 3

RESULT – won by 27 runs

They won the toss and batted, not sure why because they didn't seem all that interested. We bowled very well. Sam Connelly picked up both openers, Jai Sheahan and Cam Bishop both bowled well. Dean was on target with a couple of wickets and a couple of catches going down. Julien Groves was a pretty impressive 3rd change bowler with 5 of his 8 overs being Maidens. Andy Bish was the sixth successful bowler used claiming the ninth wicket the last ball of the 40th over. We did field very well particularly new keeper Darcy Delrio with 3 catches, but we think someone forgot to tell City it was a limited over game. Paul Sheahan was in the zone with Ben Hunt opening the innings with the 50 on the board in 21 balls, shifty retired soon after. The target was achieved in the eighth over and the old boys had a bit of a hit for a few more overs, early finish two more games of the drought ruined season.

We were lucky enough to see an exciting finish to the seconds match on Saturday afternoon, but the highlight of the weekend was the thrilling batting performance of our first eleven over the reigning premiers on Sunday.

Barry, Jay R, Percy were great, Ben Neville was magnificent. Even the pres. was great at the end doing his job with Blitzing Ben. Salvaging something from the season of no rain, no grass, no rooms, and no more cricket was an exhibition of talent, flair, and fighting spirit.

Well done fellas, you showed why we all love the game.

191 defeated Torquay 167 at Torquay Primary

Pre match the boys were full of confidence that our score of 191 from last week was easily defendable, given that the 2 overs we got in last week had reaped 1 for 5.

Jamie Harrison and Hugo Steinfort took up where they left off last week opening with 4 overs each of good tight bowling, only conceding 3 runs each. All the boys looked switched on in the field with plenty of talk and encouragement for each other.

A bowling change saw James Carr and Eddie Ratcliffe continue from where the opening combination had left off, and at the end of their 4 overs, the beachboys had only scored 2 runs off Eddie (with 3 overs being maidens) and 8 runs off James. It seemed the only thing the Torquay boys were going to get plenty of today was suntan. We needed a wicket to start the surfie boys thinking it would have been a better day to get the boards out instead of the bats.

Damian Hatch took the ball, and in his first over we had the wicket we needed to start what we thought would be the Torquay collapse. However, this brought their big fella to the crease, and he could hit hard and run like a rabbit. So after having them 1 for 21 after 18 overs, they were now 2 for 56 at the break.

After helping to push their score to 72, their big fella was heading back to take a seat after a nice c&b by Tommy Chisholm. Hugo picked up another wicket next over, and after a further 6 overs, managed to run out their fifth batsman.

Rex Jelbert managed to get them to slot a catch to Mason Wood, who then picked up a wicket thanks to a very nice stretching overhead catch by Jamie. 7 for 149.

With time and overs running out, Eddie took out the middle stump in the 52nd over, and with just 1 over to go, and Torquay having 2 wickets in hand, the ball was given to Tommy Chis. Catches off his second ball, and the last ball of the day saw Newtown come away with the chocolates, and Tom Chis end with the figures of 3/11.

Under 13 Pearce 4/234 defeated Lara Spalding 97 at Flinders Peak High School Hendy St Corio

Another good team effort produced another easy win against Lara on a windswept paddock at Corio. Our best bowling for the season saw 9 different bowlers take wickets and bowl Lara out for 97 with relatively few sundries.

The batting was excellent again with 7 batsmen reaching double figures with several good partnerships to reach 4-234.

A highlight was seeing Nick Molyneaux so happy, after going out for his personal best of 15, running off the field with arms in the air to cheers of his team mates.

Under 13 Barnes 225 defeated Bannockburn 168 at King Lloyd 2

Top team effort by the boys particularly with only 10 players available on the second day. Quality batting ensured a comfortable win after Rhys with a super spell of 5 for 11 from his allotted 6 overs and Josh followed up his keeping with 3/8.
