

TWO BLUE TRIBUNE

The official organ of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club Inc.

December 5, 2007 Vol.35 No.6 www.newtownchilwellcc.com.au

THE KIDS ARE ALL RIGHT!

The commitment to youth was never more apparent than last weekend's round against Joey's in the top four grades.

Aged 14 and 10 months, Jai Sheahan made his First XI debut. According to the record books, that makes Jai the second youngest debutant in the Club's history.

In the seconds, there was also a first game in the creams, wearing the spikes, for Jorden Lewis.

What a moment for these young fellas who've been knocking around our Club since they were knee high to a grasshopper.

And most wonderful to report, neither of whom looked out of place the next step up.

Jai, with just about the whole Sheahan family gathered under the great Gum tree at Joeys, bowled well and looked all right with the bat. Remarkably at the very ground his father Paul made his First XI debut some 25 years ago, taking 5 for 22.

Jordie showed plenty of signs that all that he learned - the wisdom, the skills, the pure class - from travelling around in his Dad's truck to all those sixth matches at the start of the century, is now being turned into something very tangible.

The results over the past few weeks have been heartening for a club firmly committed to the re-building process.

The firsts might have got the wrong end of the wicket in their run chase on the Sunday of the Joey's weekend, while the seconds put in a solid performance on the Saturday.

The 2nd XI skipper had a bit of a day out - a half century and three wickets, one from a leg-side stumping off a wide. No doubt Gregory Wells is firing off yet another letter to the rule makers about that one, but I bet Locho was happy to take it!!!

The 3rds and 4ths are on fire, with good wins over both St Josephs and Grovedale in the past fortnight.

The two skippers, Col and Frankie, are doing a great job with both the veterans and the youngsters.

Great to see the 6ths get a win last weekend.

The 5ths are struggling after a good early start to the season but will come good again.

Generally, despite the always welcome re-appearance of N. Crane, or G. Chisholm senior, the focus remains on promoting the next generation of our players, and providing them with the best resources we can to fulfil their potential.

The news that another GCA club has pinched one of our initiatives and introduced it as their own is a clear sign that what we are doing to re-create our club is being watched with a certain amount of interest around the place.

You don't always have to be on top of the ladder to be setting the standards!

Sight Screens not far away

Arthur Fleet is not far away from finishing our super-duper sight screens.

The sights screens, weather and vandal proof (fingers crossed on that one) and mounted on pneumatic wheels, will be 4.1 metres high and 4.1 metres wide. That's the standard size for sight screens around the world and unless Joel Garner turns up to play for us, should do the job nicely.

We will be the first club in the GCA to have these facilities, which really are an integral part of the game at the elite level. As well as Arthur, who has donated his labour, the club is deeply indebted to Glynn Harvey, of Harvey's of Highton (eat your greens) and evergreen veteran Neville Crane.

The acquisition of the sight screens re-enforces N&CCC's commitment to providing the best possible facilities and resources for our players. They will really add a special touch to what is already arguably the prettiest cricket ground in the competition. Toss in the new club rooms, the water tanks, the drought resistant outfield and a few other initiatives on the drawing board and you can see why a few non-Newtown people around the traps are turning green with envy and mumbling into their beers that what's happening at Newtown is the way to go!

A lot of people have also asked the question: "Who will move the sight screens?"

In premier cricket, it is the responsibility of the batting side to provide people to move the sight screens. In a lot of other cricket competitions, the fielding side has to do the job if bowlers choose to switch from round to over the wicket, or if a left-arm bowler replaces a right arm one.

When you get a chance, say thanks to Artie, and say thanks to Neville and Glynn Harvey by supporting their businesses.

The Platypus

2 Votes BOBO; described his cricket ability as can't bat, can't bowl but it's my fielding that lets me down.

2 votes Jaik Micka; In discussion Australia Day activities asked what the day was for.. informed that is the day we celebrate the English invasion, that ended the Aborigines happy peaceful existence.. Jaik then enquired are Aborigines those slightly brown fellows?

2 votes Jaik again whilst playing golf at Torquay looked over Bass Strait and asked "is that where Tasmania used to be?' yes mate it is now located just off the coast of Uruguay.

1 Vote Bobo; convinced wife cricket starts at midday and finishes at 4am and is compulsory to come home blind drunk.

3 Votes Paul Sheehan's daughter after seeing a sign that read "Christmas Trees 600 metres" said "What would you do with a 600 metre tree.." Decorate it of course

2 Votes Donna Sheehan continually told Hayden Clarke no she is my daughter not my sister.. Donna do you think Hayden may have been winding you up.

3 Votes Jimmy Bottomley, "Why would Warrick call his CD Dancing with Sow Crates?" that's Socrates Jimmy old Greek bloke, wrote a bit of philosophy in his time.

2 votes Warrick wearing a Balinese village on his head for sun protection.

votes Jai Sheehan (that is the whole family this year) The 4ths are 9 wickets down asks "Who Else you got padded up?"

3 Votes Big Jesse felt like some cheese so pulled out a solid block which he cut into cubes, then spent an hour peeling the plastic of the individual slices.

2 Votes Kate Russell sent out a helmet for Cam to bat in... Claiming that any mother would do it. What embarrassed the bejesus out of your son and heir in front of 20 grown men.

3 Votes and early nomination for Rat Shit Cup Angelo Fatone running himself out for a duck on a no ball just a week after running the coach out

3 votes Hoss wearing two pair of bras on his head at the Elephant and Castle yet still no support.

1 vote Chris Hadfield what are platypus votes for.. an example would be anything your brother the cougar gets up to on the field.

2 Votes Big Jesse good debut game no wickets, dropped catch and made a duck after running into batting partner and falling to the ground.

3 Votes and another early nomination for Rat Shit Cup GT doing Goose a huge favour informing all and sundry about the unfortunate passing of Geoff via sms, Unfortunately he sms Goose.

SIXTHS

Defeated East Belmont at Lakeside Oval, Uni.

RESULT – won by 50 runs

Deakin university lakeside oval was our venue for round 7 Versus Manifold Hts. Gary Simpson was welcomed for his 1st full game of the season as was young Andrew Wilson on debut. Bowling 1st we had the home team in trouble as Bish had "dirty" Porteous caught to a skied ball, fellow new ball bowler David Boyle also claimed a wicket as the cement heads never really got going. Bish rattled the stumps of the other dangerous opener before taking a spell to give our under 15 representatives a shot. Jack Thackeray was right on target, claiming 2 wickets, in just his 2nd senior game. Patrick Eastman also picked up 2 wickets after a wayward start. Ned Clonan had a few over's & was economical but unlucky not to claim a victim. Ben Mansell made the most of his opportunity, as he cleaned up the tail with a sensational spell of leg spinning to finish with 3 for 1. The fielding was great as David, Jack, Ned & Craney all held nice catches. With the target only 78 the bowling was hostile as you would expect. Although we made slow going of the run chase, we had plenty of over's. Craney used all his experience as the target was safely negotiated to achieve a well earned 50. Blighty gained some priceless experience & had some valuable practice, seeing out time alongside the legendary Craney. Just our 2nd win for the season, plenty of youthful exuberance & enthusiasm which we hope to continue onto next weeks match versus top of the table Bell Post Hillbillies.

The first one-dayer of the season had the Newtown boys searching for an overdue win. Highton won the toss and elected to bat. Sam Connelly and Jai Sheahan started off brilliantly and had Highton almost out of the game to begin with at 5/22.

Highton's tail wagged and managed to escape with a very competitive 114. Enter Jarrod Andrews whose own total outscored Highton's final score. Jarrod finished with a brilliant 118 that featured everything and got us across the line with 7 wickets in hand.

A big win for the U17 boys who look to be back on track. – Tim Simpson

Under 15

N&CCC Chisholm 4 for 178 defeated St Josephs @ Shaw Oval

Hatch and Chomers out and young Tom Jefferies up from the bottom age team were the only changes this week.

We assembled at Shaw Oval on a rather warm and sticky Sunday morning. Surely the skipper would do the right thing and win the toss and get the fielding side of things out of the way before the day really warmed up. Not to be. We lost the toss and were asked to bat.

Rumour has it that Joeys had won 3 from 3 and had it in their minds they could bowl us out inside the allotted 27 overs and go on for an easy victory. Had no one told them what they faced? An in form unit looking to extend its winning sequence.

We got the start we have been wanting all year as George Chis and Gus Johnstone exploded out of the blocks and had us 0/43 after 7 overs. Gus, in particular, was savage on anything driveable and continued on the form that saw him post a century for the year 9 Geelong College team the day before.

Gus departed in the 8th over for 24 and the George Brothers (Chis and Camo) set about building us a solid score. Camo called Chis for a cheeky single in the 14th over and a very good piece of fielding resulted in a direct hit and Chis was on his way for 29.

Camo was joined by Jamie Harrison but soon top edged an attempted pull and was caught at mid wicket for 18. The Rat (Eddy) and Jamie took advantage of the 2nd tier Joey bowlers and plundered 40 and 30 not out respectively. Jamie in one over went 4,4,6,4,6,lb. for a very healthy return of 25 for the over. Eddy once again proved the steadying influence in the middle order and played a tidy and compact innings.

Tom Jeffries came in at number 6 and showed his class with an effortless 16 before throwing his wicket away in pursuit of team goals. Tommy G 1 not out and Hugo 10 not out saw out the overs and we sat comfortably on 4/178 from 27 overs.

We had only to perform in the field as we had done the previous week and the game was ours. Jamie and Hugo at the top of the order were once again miserly and the Joey boys were 1/15 after their opening spell.

Steady rather than spectacular bowling during the rest of the day saw us record a convincing win. The heat of the day certainly caught up with a few of our boys as we grassed 3 or 4 chances and fielded way below the standard that we had achieved in earlier games.

Wickets were shared with no one getting more than one. Eddy the Rat had a direct hit run out and George Chisholm a catch and 2 stumpings behind the stumps in a fairly lacklustre day in the field.

George Chisholm	29	1 catch, 2 stumpings
Angus Johnstone	24	1/0/0/3 1 catch
George Cameron	18	3/1/1/9
Jamie Harrison	40*	4/1/1/9
Eddy Ratcliffe	30*	4/0/1/17 1 catch, 1 run out
Tom Jeffries	16	4/0/1/23
Tom Goodear	1*	2/0/0/21
Hugo Steinfort	10*	3/0/1/5 1 catch
Josh Carr	dnb	2/1/0/15
Ted McDonald	dnb	1/0/1/7
Tom Chisholm	dnb	3/0/0/11

Josh, Ted and Tom will all get a bat next week when we take on our neighbours from the slopes of the You Yangs--Lara, at Shaw Oval once again. Another one dayer which isn't really what we want.

Captain George will more than likely be missing next week as he is losing 4 wisdom teeth on Friday so in his absence Gus and Eddy will lead the team.

Give them your full support and let's continue this rich vein of form that we are presently experiencing.

Who is going to open with Gus next week????

As the season moved into one-day mode, we went down to the Cement boys in a close and thrilling contest.

Losing the toss for the fourth consecutive time, we found ourselves bowling first again, with the Mano openers getting their team off to a good start before newcomer Blake Keating got the break. The bowling tightened up towards the end, with Jack cashing in for three wickets, the target of 121 one we felt we could chase down provided we got off to a good start. Alas, amongst a wayward opening spell from both opening bowlers, two or three unplayable big in dipping yorkers that either removed the stumps or caught our batters in front were served up. By the time Blake got cleaned up by a grubber we were six down for not too many and looking hopelessly gone. Patrick and a few helpers in the lower order had other ideas though, with first Andrew and then Lachlan helping Easty to his retirement at 30. Last pair (the rapidly improving Isaac and big Hendo) rode their luck to whittle the score down before a mix up saw a run out finish the game as a contest. Easty smacked a couple of fours as we played out time before being caught on the boundary looking for another six to add to his earlier big hit.

An opportunity missed as we probably would knock this team off 9 times out of 10, but a fun and exciting morning.

Next week another one dayer, this time away against Leopold.

Bruce Nunn

The match was reduced to 48 overs each after a late start, mainly brought about by an excellent effort by a large group of hard-working local officials including Phil Marshall, David Barnes and Don Royce. The crowd was treated to a brilliant 99-ball innings of 104 by Darren Lehmann. He was well-supported by Rohan Larkin and Darren Ward. Although the home side fought back well to take the last nine Carlton wickets for 77 and Brett Goggin (50) and Bruce Nunn (35) were defiant, tight bowling from Herbert, McCaskill and Plumridge applied the brakes and Carlton ended up winning easily by 57 runs. Carlton lost to St Kilda in the next round, but Melbourne ended up triumphing over Fitzroy Doncaster in the Final. Melton and Traralgon West did best of the suburban and country sides who competed. Apart from Lehmann's century, individual highlights of the series included 101 by St Kilda's Laurie Harper against Carlton, 100 by Ringwood's Gerard Clarke against Traralgon West, 5/25 by Craig Howard for the Rams in the same game and a hat-trick by Uni's Ashley Robertson against North Melbourne.
