LET'S ENJOY THE FREEDOM TO GET BETTER

Aaah, that wonderful concomitant of democracy, freedom of speech - especially its richly egalitarian Two Blue version - returned on Saturday.

We talk here about the inalienable right to stand on the balcony overlooking Stinton Oval and say at various decibel levels the inane, the mundane, the profane, even among the more erudite the Michel de Montaigne.

Of course, the sign will need to go back up on the window that says: The views expressed on this balcony are not necessarily those of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club.

The view from the balcony on Saturday arvo was mostly magnificent, the grass spreading itself across the ground, the wicket true and fair, the sightscreens a stunning addition to the overall beauty of our cricket ground.

East Belmont's Pom reckoned this was easily the best he had played on while in Australia.

Other East Belmont types were making a powerful case for Stinton Oval to host finals.

The first match played in this special place in what Thomas Hardy called a twelve-month was a beauty, decided in the last over, sadly in favour of the visitors, whose stentorian (as distinct from Stintontorian) roar reached across the valley and came echoing back to wound even more deeply the second time.

Some wise old owl wondered if the lack of attendance at training on Tuesday might be reflected in the little mistakes that came under pressure at the finish. How would you ever know, except by turning up to training the next Tuesday, training as intensely as those last few overs were played last Saturday, and seeing if they are repeated next week.

Down the grades, East Belmont's depth of playing talent and spirit was self-evident. They are a bench mark. Wonder how many turf cricketers they had at training the Tuesday before this game.

So we emerge from the weekend with the knowledge there is still much to be improved, but still with plenty about which to be highly optimistic.

The Thirds and Fourths, despite reality checks, still have the capacity to play finals cricket.

The Fifths, after a solid seven wicket win, are now just six points out of the top four. And Morgo is edging, well not edging actually, sixering, closer to another milestone, amid whispers of retirement, possibly to take up umpiring.

In the Sixths, Mark Turnley scored a half century on the day he reached his half-century. Happy 50th Turtle.

Mark is one of those people whose commitment to the club can never be under-estimated. Its legacy will hopefully flow on for years as the juniors he is helping nurture flow through to the highest level. It is fantastic that he chose his club, our club, as the venue for his milestone.

A few wise old owls have been pointing out recently another bloke whose efforts on behalf of N&CCC can too easily go unnoticed - treasurer, Rhys Bennett. Well-schooled in the business of cricketing finances by the president, he is now emerging as a highly dedicated and talented chancellor of our exchequer. If all goes to plan, his treasurer's report come the AGM will be something to be proud of. He also works unfailingly hard on his cricket.

We pride ourselves on being a good club at welcoming newcomers, and long may it be thus. In doing this, we should never forget those whose loyalty is enduring, season after season. Rhys and Mark are just two of those sorts of people without whom our club wouldn't be what it is.

The 4th XI set a new record innings score of 6/477 against Bell Post Hill in round 8 – 2nd highest team score in the Club's history.
Jamie Pescott's 231 against Bell Post Hill in round 8 was a record 4th XI individual score and the second highest Club individual score.
Mark Turnley opened the batting and remained 56 not out in the 6th XI's total of 134 all out against Geelong City on 19/01/08.
 However, he did not 'carry his bat' as under competition rules he had to retire at 50 runs but was later able to resume his innings. Coincidentally it was his 50th birthday.

Kevin O'DOWD SPEAKS

NERVOUS 90's:

Champion North Geelong batsman, Alf Clark came within two runs of scoring his 18th. GCA 1st X1 ton last Saturday against Geelong West, Glenn Talarico and Adam Korth combining to ruin Alf's party. However 98 is his bogey number as it was remarkably the fourth career occasion Clark has left the crease on 98 and with other scores of 90, 90, 91, 93, 97 and 99, with 10 scores in the 90's, no batsman with more career centuries than he, being Jack Sing (30), Harry Heard (29), Len Metherell (24) and team-mate, Ross Aylmer (20) have accumulated so many 90's, Sing with (3), Heard (4), Metherell (1), and Aylmer (4).

HISTORY ALMOST REVISITED:

Torquay's insipid 23 against Geelong City two rounds ago against Geelong City was almost revisited last round when the side was again in a perilous position of 7/19 against Leopold but a career best 38 from Glenn Skrobalak coming in at number eight saved his side from back-to-back humiliations with Torquay all out for 93.

In other 1st X1 highlights, Travis Agg registered a career best by one run of 81 for Geelong City against Manifold Heights, surprise packet Leopold continued on its winning way in pursuit of finals action for the first time since season 1996-97 whilst brilliant Bell Post Hill all-rounder Darren Kiddle, about to be transferred in his employment and requiring just 39 runs and five wickets to become the first man in history to achieve the 6000 runs / 500 wickets double was runless and wicketless against Lara.

RETIRED –NOT OUT:

Gordon Greenidge is the only batsman to have "retired not out" in the history of Test cricket. This occurred during the Fifth Test between the West Indies and India at St. Johns on this day 25 years ago. Greenidge flew to Barbados immediately to visit his two year old daughter in hospital after she fell critically ill. He had scored 154 in an opening partnership of 296 with Desmond Haynes. Sadly, his daughter died two days later.

RESULT – lost by 1 run

Umpires – Ravi Ravee

East Belmont spoiled Newtown's party on Saturday upon its return to Stinton Oval, reeling in the 208 required for victory with just one over and two wickets remaining. In an almost identical scenario to their rivals, the Lions were almost on the canvas at 8-166 but Grant Dew (40no) and Peter Quick (18no) thwarted the Towners' attack to keep pace with the ladder leaders.
