

TWO BLUE TRIBUNE

The official organ of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club Inc.

February 11, 2009 Vol.36 No. 11 www.newtownchilwellcc.com.au

What a wonderful, crazy mix of humanity we all are!

It was a day leavened with all that gives humanity both the flaws and the fabulous.

Ribald laughter, outrageous acts of stupidity, gracious hospitality, rivers and tears and all through the most perfect of prisms - cricket.

It was the road trip - for us Newtown folk - to Lake Bolac for the inaugural Jason "Boris" Clark Cup.

The result of the match, played out in front of a crowd of somewhere between 150 and 200 people, was a win to the locals who were thinner and younger and decidedly faster. Next year, when we bring that cup back to Boris' other home, the Newtown side will be considerably younger and more svelte.

But really, the result didn't matter all that much, as much as Patch and Marc wanted to win it, not to mention their generally rotund, aged team mates.

Something greater was afoot, something that says as much about community as it does two cricket clubs.

You can't win premierships every year, though you do keep trying to. What you must do within your club in between all the trying and striving, is have a deep and powerful spirit of humanity; one that fights and forgives, that comes together in the worst of times, and celebrates the best of times like there is no tomorrow.

One that sings along with Sarge when he does the national anthem far better than Julie Anthony ever could.

One that weeps shamelessly at the graveside of a lost friend.

One that bends over double with laughter when at an unscheduled pitstop, a bloke gets confused about which bodily function he is trying to perform.

One that plans to do it all again next year, bigger and better - well perhaps not the bodily function confusion, but everything else.

Andrew Green did a great job organising things last Sunday. He'll get platypus votes though for doing a 10-minute interview on ABC Radio and not swearing once. What were you thinking Greenie?

Rigby led the way for Lake Bolac, but not sufficiently well enough to withstand the Mullen thunderbolt. One-all on that one!

Unfortunately, Lake Bolac had thunderbolts by the truck load, such that Shiftie was gone after two balls and Knackers, Morgo, Frankie and Jordie were all out before we'd reached half-way.

Shiftie and Knackers both brought a couple of nasty bruises back with them - souvenirs.

Thankfully Col, who batted beautifully, and Lewie showed a bit of resolve.

After a wobbly start of their own – two for one - the Wickies found an emerging superstar in Jake Clark. Anytime you want a regular game of grass Jake, you know who to call.

There was so much else that happened on the day, some of it printable, some of it not, some of it best left to the dispenser of platypus votes - we're talking about you Pom, about you Marc, about you ... Oh well, leave it all the Platypus.

Always, though, we were mindful of the underlying themes - the absence of Jason, and the need to ensure we are all aware of the insidious nature of depression.

To the people of Wicky/Lake Bolac, thanks for your great work and overflowing generous support of the day. It was amazing to watch the line of cars coming into the ground as we got close to the start of the game.

We look forward to see your bus - or busses - coming through the giant stone gates of Queens Park when we invite you into our home.

But be warned, don't make a permanent place just yet for the Jason "Boris" Clark Cup. Next year, it's coming "home"!

Fantasy Cricket weekly result round 11

Former N&CCC allrounder Jaikie Mickleburgh, pictured below, had a reasonable tour of South Africa with the England Under 19's, probably his best performance being a half century on a 20/20 game.

England lost both the one-day series and the 20/20 series. It was probably a good thing the Test was washed out.
