TWO BLUE TRIBUNE

The official organ of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club Inc.

March 11, 2009 Vol.36 No. 12 www.newtownchilwellcc.com.au

What a wonderful, crazy mix of humanity we all are! Part II.

All back to the club rooms after the last home and away game.

Greenie's handing out the Social Awards, The Pres is doing the Merriman Medal, and Sargie's gonna sing with Grant, with his beaming Dad looking on.

And before we go any further, there's another new proud Dad in a club bursting to overflow with them - Angelo Fatone.

Young Ryan has made 15 not out in his last two junior games. Won't be long before there are two Fatones in the same senior scorebook. You live for those moment Ange!

Ryan is part of an emerging generation of youngsters developing nicely, if in their own time.

Patience is the ultimate virtue, even for a club as demanding of success as ours.

But there are different ways of being patient. Dev is on the look out for extra senior talent to ensure the kids mature among a wide array of wise and experienced heads.

I am sure a lot of senior cricketers around Geelong look at our club and think "gee, I wouldn't mind being part of that". We hear of a few of them already whispering those sorts of things.

So we see what the off-season brings in terms of new faces come the start of pre-season. Interesting times.

Back to Saturday night: as predicted everywhere, Marcel got the big one, well the big one in the Social Awards, the Platypus.

Though "The Pom" pushed him, and was soon on the phone telling everyone back in England how close he'd come.

We hope you've had a great time Mikie. No matter how far you go in cricket in England, you will never encounter such a wonderful, crazy mix of humanity as this one with which you have managed to cope so well at N&CCC.

Alex Stanley deservedly won the Merriman Medal and he will receive the fabled bauble from one of the Merriman's come presentation night. He has been a stellar recruit for our club and has helped take some of the sting out of a lot of disappointing results.

The Merriman is an excellent addition to our cricket trophies because it gives everyone who has played senior cricket the chance to be considered as the Newtown and Chilwell Cricketer of the Year. Last year it was won by a Second XI player, this year by a First XI player, pushed by Paul Sheahan, these days a hard wicket champion.

The Medal also pays homage to one of the many families who have made such marvellous contributions to our club.

It was great to see so many wives and children at the club on Saturday night, too. We'd be lost without that sort of family support, too.

The whole club should be rallying around Frankie Tuskes' Fourths in the semi-finals this weekend, and hopefully the week after, when they are joined by Morgo's Fifths.

There is nothing greater than playing in finals cricket and looking to the boundary and seeing huge numbers of supporters.

Until the finals in the fourths and fifths are played out, we can't properly review the season just gone. What we can say is that it was at times a gruelling one. Yet the youngsters, again at times, stood out. When they get their man's bodies and minds, they will already be the sort of experienced N&CCC players we can relish and support from the balcony.

Throw into that emerging mix some real talent coming back the other way, and the future can only be a good one – a wonderful, crazy, talented mix of humanity.

FIRST XI

Lost to East Belmont on Stinton Oval

RESULT – lost by 303 runs

Umpire – N Martin

EAST Belmont warmed up for its finals campaign with an efficient demolition of Newtown & Chilwell at Queens Park on Saturday.

By Mark Browning.

The Lions prevailed by the huge margin of 307 runs and at one stage looked a genuine chance to win outright. It sent a warning to their fellow finalists while emphasising the large gap between those who are playing on and the teams whose seasons finished on Saturday.

For the Blues being bowled out for 67 was a sorry end to a poor season, even though they put in a better effort in the second innings.

East Belmont captain-coach Peter Quick took the new ball and turned back the clock with a fiery burst that seemed to unsettle the home side.

"There hadn't been much sun during the week so the pitch was quite fast and bouncy early on," Quick said. "It was really coming through and that seemed to put the wind up them.

"The second ball of the day hit their best batsman, Alex Stanley, in the ribs and apparently that created a bit of chat from the guys padded up. Plus we held our catches behind the wicket. Shaun Hooley and wicketkeeper Mark Hanley each took five for the day. So we got on a roll.

"I've rotated who has taken the new ball during the season to see what might be the best option for the finals. In the last couple of games I've taken it. It means I can have three spells rather than two if I come on later and that seems to be working for us at the moment."

After Quick and Leigh Allan created havoc with the new ball Sam Scannell demolished the middle and lower order taking a remarkable 4-4.

"Sam had a great all-round match," Quick said. "He made a hundred when we batted and took those wickets. He hit Scott Mullen in the head and got other wickets."

The Two Blues were batting a second time before 3pm, but produced a better performance to avoid an outright loss.
