TWO BLUE TRIBUNE

The official organ of the Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club Inc.

March 18, 2009 Vol.36 No. 13 www.newtownchilwellcc.com.au

The new generation continues to emerge

Congratulations to the Newtown and Chilwell Under 13 Royce side that won their competition last Sunday and the Royce Shield named after N&CCC Life Member, Don Royce (yep, Dev's Dad). And welcome to that most wonderful of elite clubs – that of being a N&CCC premiership player.

Rain prevented a result but the boys were well on their way to victory when the game was abandoned, with James Hickey top-scoring with 25.

He had good support from The Zackster, Zac Sheahan and Tim Hosking. The Zackster also got a couple of wickets.

According to our junior co-ordinator, Mark Turnley, who knows more about these kids than their parents - well almost - the level talent across all the players is very even.

So we list them all:

- J. McGrath
- T. Hosking
- J. Hickey
- Z. Sheahan
- H. Gow
- J. Maishman
- S. Hosking
- N. McGuane
- W. Paxton
- D. McMahon
- M. Gardner

"It's a great little side," said Mark. "Every player has made a contribution over the summer."

And Mark says we can expect them all to have more success as they grow through the age groups and into senior cricket.

Well done too to all the parents who supported the team across the summer.

We have two other sides playing finals in the seniors this weekend.

Frankie's Fighting Fourths had a solid won over Geelong City in their wind and rain swept elimination final at Carey Oval over the weekend.

The battling highlight wasn't, as you might expect, another pyrotechnic display from Shiftie. Or Battler reaching the double century again.

Rather it was Terry Hickey who combined a Bradmanesque effort with his own unique narrative. And all from the precarious position of number 10.

Hickey also produced the juicy little wobbler that bowled City's best bat. The full bowling honours though quite rightly go to Zack Stokes and Tommy Bates, two youngsters.

They're the closest of friends, these too, but when it comes to bowling actions, they're a bit like Picasso and Rembrandt.

All arms and legs, Zack looks like he learned to bowl from a long lost Bob Willis tape, but like the gangly Pom, he keeps getting wickets.

Tommy's action is more measured and classical. He even put on a classic little tanty when he had an lbw turned down that was plumber than a man working with a pipe, as Michael Holding would say.

The 5ths ended the season on top of the ladder with a fine win over South Barwon on the green top at Belmont Common. Morgo top-scored, copping one on the head along the way.

He also put his body - even the most vital bits - on the line in the field, taking a catch between his thighs.

The bowling was solid, Clarkie proving the big fish this week with a nice little Michelle, as in Michelle Pfeiffer, or a five-for.

The 6ths finished their season on Saturday with Mark Turnley turning in the bravura performance with bat and bowl, but unable to secure a win.

There is a wad of baby-faced talent in this side too – Toby Sudweeks, Josh Barnes, the cousins Fletcher and Tom, along with Mitch Davis, who has bowled beautifully across the summer. Whether it's via his work as junior co-ordinator, or by picking all the young blokes in the 6ths, Mark Turnley has made an indelible contribution to the future of our club. On Saturday, his side had two life members, the son of a life member and the sons of two first XI premiership players. And the age difference between the youngest and oldest players was roughly 50 years. What an amazing mix.

It's important that all of us for whom the season is over - young, old or just past it - to get along to support the 4ths and 5ths this weekend.

There just has to be a time in the finals when Shiftie and Battler both fire up big time. That alone would be worth the price of admission.

About this time of year, Morgo also gets the scent of finals and grows another leg, which he might nearly have needed if that aforesaid catch had been any closer to the nether regions.

All good fun, which finals times always are. It's just another game and yet it just isn't. Some teams choke and make quick exits, others relish the extra pressure.

Frank's boys thrived on it last weekend, as did all those Under 13s. Morgo will be encouraging his charges to make the most of the opportunity.

Let's keep it going.

RECRUITING COUP II GEORGE SCHOFIELD

Season 1933/34 and the young George Schofield joined the Club after playing two incomplete seasons, whilst at the Geelong Grammar School, with South Geelong. Schofield had won the G. C. A. bowling at the now defunct South Club during the previous season with 28 wickets at an average of 9.96 and his beginnings at his new Club could not have been more successful, taking 8 for 41 on debut.

In a fantastic pre-Christmas series of games George took 36 wickets at an average of 9.92, including 8/41 (round 1), 7/61 (round 4) and 6 for 26 including the first hat-trick at the Club in round 5. He finished the season with a record breaking 52 wickets at 16.17.

Geelong cricket mourns legendary all-rounder George Schofield

by GCA Historian, Kevin O'Dowd

GEELONG cricket is mourning the death of one its greatest all-rounders, George Schofield.

Schofield, the fourth highest wicket taker in the Geelong Cricket Association, died last week aged 94.

Schofield attended Geelong Grammar School and made his GCA first grade debut for South Geelong in 1931. He switched to Newtown and Chilwell two seasons later where he captured on debut a career-best 8-41 and played in three premierships over 14 seasons.

A leg-break bowling all-rounder, Schofield amassed 3617 runs at 24.0 with two centuries and 514 wickets at a trim 16.0 from his 178 games.

Only Greg Wells (574), Bill Eason (547) and Bert Brown (539) took more wickets in GCA cricket.

He is also only player to have scored a century and captured six wickets in one match while playing for Newtown and Chilwell against North Geelong in 1949-50.

Schofield also had a two-year stint with South Melbourne after the war, where he shared a flat with close friend and former Australian Test captain, Lindsay Hassett.

Arguably his finest moment, however, came when he took four wickets against the 1937 England Touring team at Corio Oval while playing for Geelong.

Schofield excelled at Country Week for Geelong. From his seven carnivals, he was a premiership player four times, in 1935, 1937, 1938 and 1939 and in just 25 games he collected an astonishing 111 wickets at 10.0 - a runaway record to this day. The next closest is John Russell with 66 wickets. His best of 8-17 included a hat-trick against Ballarat in 1939.
