Hi Dudgeon, goodbye Frankie!!!

Older folk will remember Keith Dudgeon who opened the batting for Queensland.

His brother High Dudgeon made an appearance on Queens Park on Saturday, not to open the batting against Joey's, where Knife and Yves were doing a good job anyway, but in any discussion that mentioned the name Tuskes, Junk Time and Stevie Lewis, hereabouts re-christened Poor Stevie Lewis.

As his is won't these days, your scribe journeys around the grounds, and after ministering to the injured at Belmont Common, wandered past Joey's top oval to see the Twos, then thought of calling in on the 4ths at Carey Oval en route to HQ.

Gobsmacked! Carey was vacant! You can't have a washout on concrete, can you?

On arrival at Queens Park, said scribe discovered the awful truth. FT was as popular as an investment banker at a superannuees' forum.

Nice to see the heat pass off the skipper who declared early in a fourths game a few seasons back and on to new Fourth XI captain.

Whatever, he got the points and you can't argue against that. But people were arguing about much else that followed.

The Sixths and Fifths also got the points.

There's something pretty special about watching a 60-plus player wander into the club rooms sporting a grin and a huge thumbs, as well as the news they got Aggie for a duck, or thereabouts, courtesy of a wicked delivery from Bish, whose grin was as wide as Cranie's.

Successfully defending 95 is true N&CCC G&D.

The Fifths showed also some genuine Newtown G&D.

Despite being reduced to nine men by injury and absenteeism, they managed to reduce South Barwon to 5-13. Big Nathan has to push up into the howling wind while Jimbo (3-13 of 13 overs) came downwind. Turns out when they opened the batting together last week, Jimbo agreed to face the first ball so long as he got to choose the end he bowled from next week. That's cunning!

We all know about the Fourths ... S. Lewis, stranded on 80 not out, and A. O'Connor stranded 98 short of his ton (no wonder he was so vocal) and Frankie back in Lorne before the end of break.

In the Thirds, St Joey's had a couple of century makers to suggest their talent pool is three grades deep.

Loatsie got another three-for in the 2nds, but more expensively obtained. It will be a learning experience for a bloke who has come along way in a short time.

The Dudgeon's made a re-appearance as the Firsts unravelled from 0-130 to all out 221. Cam and Jackson tried vainly to hang on at the end, but really ... It shouldn't have been left to them.

There is enough cricket knowledge within the first XI to know that and pleasingly there appeared to be plenty of blokes hurting.

Some as much as Toby Sudweeks after he copped a hit in the mouth in the 5ths that banged his upper lip against his braces. OUTCH!!!!

As the pain began to subside, he was quickly chastising himself for dropping the catch. He then went back out on to the field because his side was two men down and needed him, took the ball and got a wicket.

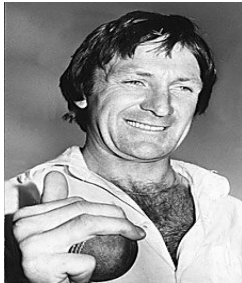

That's Newtown G&D and it's great to see that it's working its way up from the Under 15s.

Russell Mitchell is a cricket legend

by Daniel Breen, courtesy of the Geelong Advertiser

EIGHT premierships, more than 8000 runs, 300 games and life membership have secured Russell Mitchell's rightful place as a Newtown & Chilwell legend.

Mitchell is in the middle of his 300th match for the Two Blues and remained confident his team could defend a modest total against St Joseph's seconds.

The 44-year-old scored six as Newtown crawled to 139 on a low and slow wicket last Saturday, but believed the Joeys would need to bat the majority of the day to spoil his party.

He conceded he had not had the best year with the bat so far but he still loved playing and planned to continue for many years to come.

"I plan to play for a long time," Mitchell said.

"Whether I end up playing in the fifths or sixths ... doesn't matter. I'll keep playing until I can't run anymore."

Mitchell is revered by all at Newtown, where he started his playing career as an 11-year-old in 1975 under the guidance of then under-13s coach Don Royce, who has become a lifelong friend.

He played his first senior match in the Two Blues' fifths as a 14-year-old and received club life membership earlier this year.

But, Mitchell means much more to the club than his longevity. He was a gun player and an integral part of the Newtown teams that dominated Geelong cricket in the 1980s.

Mitchell is the only player to have made two double centuries for the club, with a highest score of 213 not out in the firsts against Geelong West in 1985.

He played in four first XI premierships and has added three second XI triumphs and one in thirds for good measure.

Mitchell said those heady days were built on a core of brilliant players and a belief the team could win from any position.

"The thing about it was, no matter what we did with bat or ball, we believed we were going to win. We always thought we would win and most times we did," he said.

In between those cricket triumphs, Mitchell enjoyed a brief league football career with Geelong.

He played two senior matches and "about 10 reserves games" for the Cats in 1985 and 1986, receiving a call up after the infamous Leigh Matthews-Neville Bruns clash.

"I got called down from Bell Post Hill because they were short," he said. "I played three games in the reserves, got a call up to the seniors and played in the first round of 1986. I also played a night match against Hawthorn."

THIRD XI

Lost to St Josephs on Shaw Oval

RESULT – lost by 128 runs

Little joy for our 3rds against long time rivals St Josephs. Having won the toss and electing to bat on a lightning quick outfield our boys could only post a total of 179 runs. Jordan Lewis showed he is learning lessons batting on the turf and his 64 runs were the back bone of the teams innings. He kept his knock simple: play with patience and keep out the good balls, respect the reasonable balls and belt the rubbish balls to and over the fence. It won't be long before he is a major contributor of runs in the higher levels.

From a bowling and fielding performance the team highlight was the return of Terry Hickey's left arm off spin. He bowled 21 overs with figures of 2/23 in what turned out to be a marathon 90 over innings for the Joey's boys.

Time to keep our chins up, train hard and stick like glue as we take on Grovedale next week.

SIXTH XI versus Lara at Lara 2

RESULT – won by 112 runs

Smashed one week before, big winners the next.

Batting first it was Turtle doing the damage early with a quickfire 49, but when Bretto played one on for a well made 40 things were starting to go awry at 7/116.

Simmo survived a close lbw shout before getting his eye in and with Craney had added 60-odd in the next 10 overs before pulling up short with a torn calf (the “old mans” injury so he was told). Fireworks ensued from Blakey, his 42no coming off about 15 balls and including several massive sixes, one of which miraculously came to ground and missed everything in the nearly full carpark.

Score doubled to 7/231 at the break with a win looking good.

With Blakey throwing in a few short ones, it was Bish at the other end and then young Mitch Davis who did the damage, the home team put away with a minimum of fuss for an easy 100+ run victory.

What a difference a day makes.

SIXTH XI defeated Geelong City at Eastern Park 3

RESULT – won by 25 runs

What a win!

Defending 95 on Eastern Park #3.
Odds would be 100-1 you'd think.

But there it is, 95 all out vs 70 all out – a day for the bowlers, with only George Camo really troubling the scorers as our innings fell away in less than 30 overs.

At the tea break, I reckon the skipper was the only one who really believed we could win it – and win it we did, easily in the end. U17 Ned Clonan (in his first senior game this season) had the sensational figures of 4 for 6 off 8 overs, but it was a real team effort with great spells from all the bowlers and terrific fielding all across the board.

Three wins, three losses and well in the hunt. Next week, Sth Barwon at home with the boys on a roll and looking for another 6 points.

Take away Thai

N&CCC has a fabulous new service for members and their friends
– Take Away Thai!

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, as well as dining at the clubrooms, take away meals are available from John and his hard-working team in our kitchen which of course, is a fully equipped professional one.

The take away meals were test driven on Saturday night by one member of the club's executive who is able to report them to be of the highest quality: went down nicely with his first glass of pain-relieving chardonnay after an ill-considered comeback.

But seriously, this is a great extension of what our club can offer members, their families, friends, neighbours, etc. Use it to your advantage.

Specialities include Pad Thai, green curries and rice. John's a fairly obliging sort of fellow. Tell him what you want and he will do his bet to prepare.

You can pre-order by calling John on: 0417 875 848

Or simply rock up at the rooms, have a cold one while you're waiting, then head back home.
