PRESIDENT'S DINNER ON THIS SATURDAY NIGHT – be there!!

The President's Dinner is on this Saturday night featuring David Schwarz and Francis Leach from SEN.

Schwarz played AFL footy for Melbourne and Victoria, while Leach is simply one of the best radio broadcasters this country has produced with an enormous knowledge of not just sport, but music and the arts.

A highlight of the night will be remembering the premierships from 1999/2000 and 1959/60.

It seems we'll have a good role up of people involved in those. A lot of blokes from 10 years ago are still involved in one way or another.

Chissa is already rehearsing his story of the day he featured in a last wicket partnership to beat Grovedale, in a grand final, again. You've only got two minutes Chissa, I hope Hoody, Meggsie and a few others get a mention in that time, too.

Great to hear so many people from 50 years ago are keen to come along.

It should be a night of nights and if you haven't booked, well you bloody well ought to have.

Get on to Steff now. This is the other important event for Fundraising February.

We had some good wins in the lower grades over the weekend.

The fourths were pretty solid against Grovedale, "Who Is "making a good half century.

And the cameo from Morgo impressed the chairman of selectors enough for him to be dropped straight back to the 5ths!!!!

In the 5ths East Bellyache were at it again, well one of 'em.

He reckons we're a pretty ordinary club for depending on 5ths premierships to get us by.

He's welcome any time to come and count the number of senior premiership photos on the wall. All success in sport is cyclical. On your bike!

Anyway, the game at Oberon High was over after 22.5 overs on day one – The Coug and Marc both taking five-fors.

And well done the Specklerhan, 154. Apparently there was great relief one A. Green didn't emulate Tony's effort with a century of his own. Folk were preparing to disconnect pipes to kegs until news came through he was out.

And well done to Specs and everyone else involved in major raffle day.

The 6ths got back to winning form against Geelong City Blue, Bish, big Jess and the enduring N. Crane getting runs while the wickets were shared out. Big Jess hit five fours and three sixers ...

See you at President's Dinner.

WELL DONE KNIFE

The Newtown and Chilwell Cricket Club offers its sincere congratulations to Alex Stanley who made his first eleven debut for Geelong Cricket Club in February.

Alex played with us last year and when he told us he was going to Geelong, we wished him all the best.

We take great pleasure in his achievements this year.

Great to see another Two Blue in the GCC First XI again, too. Well done Bluey Muller.

The Platypus

- 3 Votes - Lucas Friend - At Manifold Heights, while scoring, a ball got hit into the school next door and got lost. Half of the team went over to look for it. After a few minutes looking for the ball, Lucas then asks, "Why are the players are in the school?"
- 1 Vote - Ben Neville - Seeing a different "sledging" side of the coach at double wicket - that's what the day is really all about!
- 3 Votes - Tom Jefferies - After being told by his captain they were bowling, he was a little complexed why the fielding side was warming up bowling, so he went over and asked if they were bowling or batting first. His captain was right, they were bowling first!
- 2 Votes - Tom Roberts - Driving to the wrong ground for the game vs Grovedale.
- 2 Votes - Russell Mitchell - Arriving at the ground for a game without his whites.
- 3 Votes - Steff - Scoring for the First XI for some time now, rang Hoss on the other side of the ground to ask who was bowling for Newtown when playing against Manifold Heights.
- 1 Vote - Watermullen - stealing Percy's wallet on Double Wicket Day, thinking it was his own, after hours of searching by several people it was found that Watermullen had it the whole time while spending his money to get pissed.
- 3 Votes - Richo for forgetting his teammate's names.
- 3 Votes - The 4th XI - chasing 209 for victory and a high finals spot - getting bowled out for 39 vs Leopold.
- 3 Votes - Greeny for wearing nothing but his skins in the rooms and offering AJ $20 to go and get his shorts which he threw off the balcony.
- 3 Votes - Again for Greeny - when going home, got inside, grabbed his doona and pillow and then sleeping on the front lawn.
- 1 Vote - Lucas Friend - for falling off his chair at the Barwon club then asking "who pushed me?" after the Reverse Raffle.
- 1 Vote - Greeny for crashing his car into Knackers front fence.
