PRESIDENT'S DINNER

What a night!

PEOPLE

Two Blues tales

NEWTOWN and Chilwell Cricket Club held its president's dinner recently with a highlight being the presence of members of the 1959-60 premiership side. Among the ex-players there was former chairman of Cricket Australia, Bob Merriman and the stories about his leg-spinning prowess grew as the night wore on. Another great player and administrator of earlier days, David Shaw, attended. Guest speakers were David Schwarz, the former Melbourne football star, and Francis Leach, both now broadcasters on SEN.

Junior Scores semi finals

Under 17

N&CCC Just 8/161 (Pat Richards 66, Joe Rutherford 29, Pat Eastman 29) lost to Lara 6/162 (Pat Eastman 2/35).

Winning the toss and batting, Pat Richards held the innings together with a fine display of his skills, skipper Patrick Eastman and the ever-improving Joe Rutherford also doing well.

A flurry of late wickets probably cost us 20 or so runs, but given the slowish outfield we were confident that our total was defendable if we bowled and fielded well.

After the storms of Saturday afternoon, it seemed impossible to think we would get underway at all on Sunday, but a break in the weather saw us out there with ball in hand at the allotted starting time, albeit on a wet and slippery surface.

Jai gained an early break, Jack another and we looked to be going OK. However the Lara opener was doing as Richo had done for us, holding things together to see them to 3/89 at break. Try as we did, we just couldn't gain the break after the resumption, two or three half chances not going to hand and the odd run out opportunity not quite working for us.

Despite the loss of a couple of late ones, the Lara lads passed us with 15 balls to spare, a well-earned win on their behalf in a close and hard fought contest.

All in all, a top effort from the Two Blue boys. We never gave up and played with great fighting spirit in trying conditions. Well done to all the boys on an excellent year in a very tightly contested division.

Under 15

N&CCC Chisholm 7/164 defeated Anglesea 9/159

Under 13

N&CCC Barnes 174 lost to Anglesea 179.

N&CCC Crane lost to South Barwon .

The Under 13 Crane boys showed great fighting spirit to get within one run of a grand final appearance after being outplayed by Sth Barwon for most of the semi-final.

A good bowling performance in tough conditions kept St Barwon to a reachable target of 144 with Ryan Fatone again leading the way with 4/6, the only other wicket takers were Michael Kirkland 2/13 and Jake Mitchell 1/10.

With only 10 boys available & our top order failing for the first time this season we were in big trouble at 6/50, then Ryan Fatone (14) was out early on the second day & Ben Malone (2) run out by a direct hit leaving us 8/96 and looking at an early finish.

Enter Davis George (25) and Hugh Coghlan (7no), two boys who showed great maturity and fighting spirit to put on a 47 run last wicket partnership & get us within 1 run of the target with 3 balls to spare.

It was a cruel end to a very enjoyable season for all the boys, with each and every player making major contributions at some stage & they should be proud of their efforts.

Platypus votes

- 2 Votes - Loatsy - Jesse borrowed Loatsy's car, didn't like the radio station so he went to see what CD was in the player to find a Britney Spears CD in there.
- 2 Votes - Boyo - Nude bowling on Stinton Oval
- 1 Vote - Chris Bucovaz - Playing his first game for NCCC in the 6th, had already been bowling an over or two then goes up to Craney and Turtle and asks how to hold the ball and how to bowl it so it swings!
- 1 Vote - Chris Bucovaz - About to bat, lifts a thigh pad up, asks - "Do I have to wear one," then asks how to put one on, then proceeds to put it over his pants.
- 3 Votes - Jesse - Getting to the train station to get to cricket and then realising he has left his wallet in some girls car that he doesn't really know.
- 3 Votes - Jesse - For liking "So You Think You Can Dance".
- 3 Votes - Lucas - Tried to sneak in without Soph hearing him and tripped over a pile of boxes. Then went to the spare room and got a text from her saying "you disgust me".

Annabelle a canny buyer

Annabelle
Dunbabin,
Wandana
Heights

1 I bought three new tops, two from Myer and one from Crimson and Clover. I'm going to the Future Music Festival on Sunday and needed something to wear. Clearly I got a bit carried away when I bought three. They were $29, $39 and $49. One was on sale, the others I paid full price.

2 I bought two plain workbooks from Officeworks for uni. They were $1 each. I think Officeworks is convenient and I like the parking.

3 I got a train ticket to Southern Cross for $7.80. I can sleep on the train and parking is too hard in Melbourne.

4 I buy a coffee every day from The Coco Tree in James St. My friends recently opened that. They have amazing coffee and it's a really cute funky cafe. The coffee is $3.20.

5 I bought a 2010 diary from Smiggle for $6.95. It's only little and fits in my bag and I have it with me all the time so I can put in assignments and my work shifts.

6 I bought a foccacia from Melbourne Central for $6. It is probably one of the healthiest things you can buy there.

7 I buy the Addy and the Herald Sun three times a week. It fills in time between classes at uni.

8 I paid my phone bill. It was $64. I usually go over my cap just a bit. I'm definitely a texter. I'm with Optus and pretty happy with them.

9 I bought dinner at the Elephant and Castle. I got the rack of lamb which is $28 and I get staff discount so it was down to $14.

10 I got petrol from the Apco on Moorabool St. I don't use any discount voucher, it's usually a bit cheaper there, anyway.
