Fourths, Fifths and Sixths in finals this weekend – be there to support them

The fighting fourths, fifths and sixths have taken Newtown and Chilwell deeper in to the business end of the season.

But sadly, despite a grand effort, the thirds were not able to go with them, losing a tight one out at Grovedale.

So the chant this week is to get along and support Grant, Morgo, Turtle and their boys.

Despite Pessie's optimism on Saturday arvo, 142 just wasn't quite enough to win their game.

Tommy Bates and Lucas Friend made early inroads into the South Barwon batting and at 6-84 and than against at 8-109, the game was there for the winning.

It just wasn't to be.

The fourths had a tense run chase of their own against North Geelong at Winter Reserve.

Chasing down 261 anywhere is no mean feat.

To do it with four wickets and overs to spare was marvellous.

Well done to Who Is on his timely 69 not out, and Shiftie for blasting his side back into the game.

The word was that one six went so far towards Torquay that drinks were over by the time the bloke sent to get it had got back to the ground.

In the Fifths the catches were dropping like flies. And run outs were missed. St Josephs emerged from their 40 overs with 184. They shouldn't have made 84.

The fumbles with the ball then flowed through to the batting before Lewie, Patch, Smokin', Hibbsie and a smiling Mule did the job much of the top order didn't.

But quietly everyone knew that if they played like that next week, participation in the finals will be pretty brief.

It seems the 5ths have won a couple of GCA averages, well done to Cougs and Trev.

The sixths were presented with an Everest in the battle between first and second - 303 from 40 overs. They barely got past base camp, but there's another couple of weeks and plenty can happen.

So get along to one of the grounds, or all of them, and support the blokes in the finals. It's the Newtown way.

Though some person of infinite courage believes it is not the Newtown way. Writing on the Addy's website, he took a pot shot at our club under the cloak of anonymity but when it was suggested that his identity and that of his club was well known to us, and we also knew by how much said club had breached the GCA salary cap, he went quiet.

Quite a few clubs found out at the weekend that in addition to happiness, money can't buy premierships.

And blokes with fancy price tags don't always sit comfortably with blokes doing it for the love of their club.
